In brief

Church will break ground

The Community United Methodist Church will be breaking ground on Sunday for a new $300,000 church sanctuary to be built on the site of their former church building, which was gutted by fire on Oct. 23, 1978.

The ceremony, marks the culmination of over two years of planning and meetings involving the Building Committee and other members of the congregation.

The two acre site, located at Bibbins and Olive Streets, has been the home of the local Methodist congregation since 1903 when the church was first constructed.

Services are presently being held in the Senior Center, next to the Recreation Department. Pastor Floyd Ellison will officiate at the ground breaking. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Refreshments will be served. Members of the building committee include: William Oakley, Josephine Rehkopf, Fred Wahrman, Ida Scott, Jean Savage, Jay Lambertson, Hal Savage, Ken Krueger and Pastor Ellison.

Romulus issues 53 permits

A total of 53 permits of all types were issued in September by the Romulus building department for construction totalling $630,490.99.

Included in industrial permits issued was one for construction of a warehouse on Metroplex Drive between Middlebelt and Ecorse roads by Jim Gaunt of Chelsea, Mich.

A breakdown of permits showed: 2 - single-family houses; 37 - additions and alterations; 6 - garages and carports; 3 - industrial buildings; and 5 - signs.

Child Care free to voters

Child care will be provided free for voters from 3 to 8 p.m. next Tuesday at the precinct in Hale Creek Elementary School by members of Girl Scout Troop 215.

Troop members have journeyed to Playworld, a child care center on Eureka Road, to learn how to care for young children in their efforts to assist voters on election day.

Presidential race should bring voters out in record numbers

Sullivan is favored in Huron race

By BOB AMEEN
ANP Staff Writer

The presidential battle between incumbent President Jimmy Carter and Republican challenger Ronald Reagan is expected to bring out a larger than normal voter turnout in the general election Tuesday, Nov. 4, in Romulus and Huron townships.

Polls will open at 7 a.m. and close at 8 p.m. in voting precincts in both those communities and across the state. A small percentage of voters — senior citizens unable to get to polls and citizens out of the area at election time — will already have marked ballots and have sent or will send them to local clerk offices.

In Huron Township, the race for supervisor will be the focal point of local interest, with Democrat Richard Sullivan, former treasurer, the favorite to defeat his Republican opponent, Eugene Perecki. Three local proposals also are anticipated to attract local voters to the polls.

Huron Township normally votes predominantly Democratic.

Since Democrat incumbent Clerk Mary Lou Carey and Democrat Christine F. Gamber, who was appointed treasurer when Sullivan resigned, have no opposition, they will automatically retain their offices.

However, in the contest for four trustee seats on the township board, four Democrats, including three incumbents, and four Republicans will do battle, with the edge given to Democrat candidates.

Running for trustee for the Democrats are: Frederick F. Ashby, William J. Geierman and John Puskas, all incumbents, and Helen Kowalski. On the GOP side, trustee candidates are: Robert Lemieux, Sidney Dent, Gary G. Bates, and George Angel.

William H. Manny and Devere R. Willard, Democrat incumbents, will automatically retain their constable positions as they will have no opposition.

All terms of office will be for four years this election following newly-enacted state legislation mandating that length of office for all townships in Michigan.

The first local proposal facing Huron voters is whether the township should be changed in operation from a general law to a charter type government.

Under charter township government, Huron would have greater protection against annexation by neighboring cities.

Change to a charter township would authorize increasing local millage up to five mills. Any increase after that amount would have to be approved by a vote of the people.

In Michigan, cities can annex portions of an adjoining township, but the reverse is not permitted by state law.

A second proposal in Huron is whether up to 1 1/4 mills shall be levied to expand the local police force to include a third night shift. (Continued on Page A-3)

Huron strike settled

A new three-year contract agreed upon Sunday put an end to a 10-day strike by some 100 members of Teamsters Local 214 that closed down the Huron school district for four days.

The contract settlement came five days after a hearing last week in Wayne County Circuit Court that ended with an order to begin daily negotiations and to limit picketing.

According to information from Supt. Curtis D. Bartz and Bud Grable, business agent for the local, the new pact includes a 5-percent salary boost back to July of 1980, a 4 1/2-percent raise in January of 1981, an 8-percent increase in July of 1981, a 5-percent raise in July of 1982, and a final 4-percent increase in January of 1983.

Also, members of Local 214 will receive dental benefits beginning in the third year of the new contract.

Grable said Local 214 members ratified the new pact immediately after agreement was reached Sunday. However, the Huron school board is not scheduled to review the new contract until Monday, Nov. 3, at which time ratification could come.

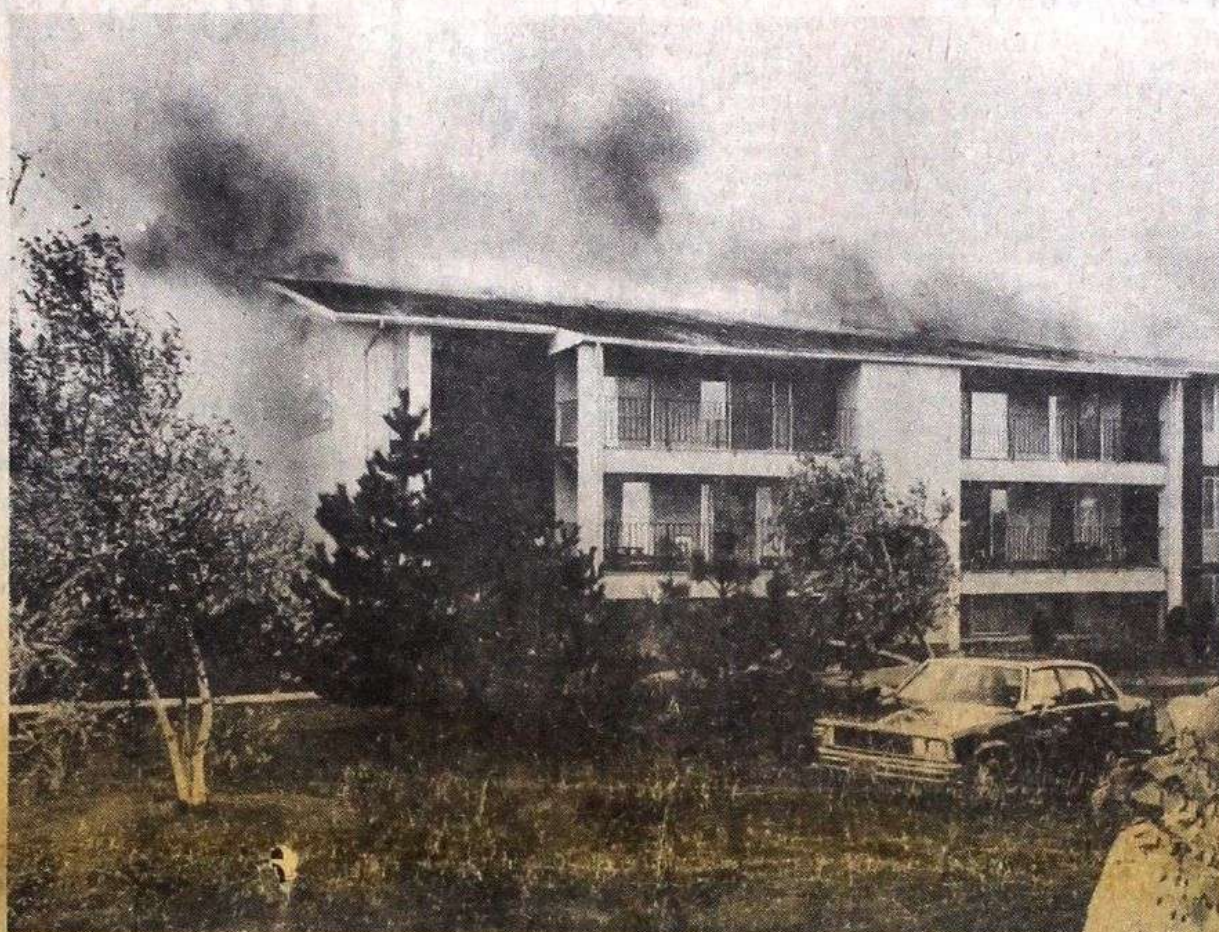

In spite of the strike which began Oct. 16 and which shut down public schools in Huron by order of the superintendent that same day, they were reopened a week ago. At that time, parents were asked to bring their children to school or arrange for their transportation to school.

Some friction developed between the union and members of the community, including charges by the union that five of its pickets had been struck by vehicles on the first day of the strike.

Monday, however, both Bartz and Grable had no comment on the new contract or the strike.

Local 214 is composed of bus drivers, secretaries, cooks, mechanics, custodians, teacher aides and maintenance personnel.

They had sought a 12-percent annual pay increase in earlier bargaining talks, while the Huron school board prior to the strike had offered a 5-percent yearly pay hike.

Fire officials say that the fire that swept through a Lemontree Apartment complex last week was deliberately set. They say that no suspects have been arrested in the $1.5 million blaze that left a score of apartment dwellers without food and clothing. It was the second major fire at the complex in recent years, and firefighters were forced to return to the apartments last Thursday when another fire broke out. The second blaze was contained before it could do any damage.

$1.5 million blaze

Arson is cause of Lemontree fire

By BOB AMEEN
ANP Staff Writer

Arson has been definitely blamed for a fire which hit Lemontree Apartments in Van Buren Township last week, causing damages estimated at between $1 million and $1.5 million.

No one was injured in the blaze and all occupants of 29 apartment units in Building 19 at the eastern most part of the large complex were safely evacuated, said Karen Shumate, resident manager.

A second fire in the basement hallway of Building 44 was put out by security personnel about 11 p.m. Thursday before firemen from the Van Buren Township Fire Dept. arrived in response to a call.

Both fires are "definitely arson", reported Det. Jo Price of the Wayne County Sheriff's Dept., who is in charge of the investigation.

However, Mike Mitchell, investigator for the sheriff's department, said he preferred to call them "set fires", thus leaving legal ramifications that might arise out of the picture.

Mitchell was working closely on the case with Robert Delaney, state police fire marshal. Mitchell said the results of his investigation will be turned over to Price.

The large blaze which struck Building 19 was reported to the township's fire department at 11:02 a.m., said Clerk Doreen Craven, who is also the township's fire commissioner.

She had high praise for volunteer township firemen who got to the scene six minutes later in time to see smoke and flames erupting from the roof of Building 19. Winds of 18 miles per hour, gusting to 30 miles an hour, fanned flames and helped spread the blaze to other apartment units in the structure.

Firefighting units were summoned from nearby communities of Belleville, and the townships of Sumpter, Ypsilanti, and Pittsfield. Police officers arrived quickly on the fire scene from Van Buren, Belleville, Wayne County Sheriff's Dept., and the state police post at Ypsilanti.

Miss Shumate estimated firemen battled the huge fire until about 3:30 p.m. Tuesday before it was extinguished. She said about 75 percent of the 29 families were relocated to other units in the Lemontree complex, while the remainder went to stay with relatives and friends.

During the fire, wives and families of firemen at the scene brought hot coffee and sandwiches for firefighters and evacuated apartment residents, she said.

Chatham Supermarket, in nearby Lakewood shopping center, also sent sandwiches and other food to the Lemontree complex, said the manager. Also, Romulus Mayor William M. Oakley called Sup. Pat Cullen to report that Morgan Manor, a large apartment complex in his community, was willing to put up evacuated residents.

Sumpter treasurer says he borrowed money

Case of missing $1,000 is finally solved

By BOB AMEEN
ANP Staff Writer

"I hate what I did" admitted Sumpter Township Treasurer Clarence Russell as he confessed to the Enterprise Tuesday that he had taken $1,000 found missing in his office "to cover personal bills."

Russell said he would submit his written resignation to the Sumpter Township Board at last night's regular meeting of that body.

The $1,000 shortage in the water operations fund was first discovered Aug. 15 by an employee in the treasurer's office and later confirmed by the township's auditing firm.

The discovery launched an investigation by the Sumpter Police Dept. and prompted Russell to send out a written statement announcing strict security measures for his office.

Also, after admitting that the laxness in his office security contributed to the shortage and that he must accept the blame, Russell said two and a half weeks after the discovery of the shortage that he and his two office employees would repay the missing $1,000.

After the investigation was turned over to the local police under Cpl. Rudy Rose, little was heard except that state police were to schedule lie detector tests for Russell and the employees in his office.

Developments released Tuesday morning by Police Chief Clinton Brown revealed that Russell had failed his lie detector test last Thursday and had confessed the theft to local and state police investigators.

Prior to the test given the treasurer, both Leona Barber, deputy treasurer, and Linda Smith, a non-regular employee, had passed the polygraph tests successfully, said Brown.

"After Mr. Russell confessed to taking the money, it was not necessary to schedule a polygraph test for Cheryl Pless, financial secretary in the treasurer's office," said the police chief.

Monday morning, Russell told the Enterprise, "I borrowed the money to cover personal bills with the intention of returning it."

But, he said, the shortage was discovered the same day. Then, he said, the issue "snowballed" due to coverage of the story in the newspapers and the tighter security that he himself instituted for his office.

New Kiwanis officers

Ladies Night and installation of officers for 1980-81 highlighted the agenda for the 24th annual installation of officers of Romulus Kiwanis Club held recently at the Food Service Complex of Romulus High School. Oaths of office were given by Lt. Gov. William S. Chizmar, Michigan Division, 9th division. New officers include Gerald Nault, treasurer, (from left); Gerald Hoffer, secretary; Simon Binder, president; Dave Ferdon, 2nd vice-president; and Vince Parratta, 1st vice-president. Food was prepared and served by students studying food services, under the supervision of Dr. Oscar Butler of the Romulus High School staff. The board of directors of Romulus Kiwanis Club include: Frank Andrews, Thomas Janack, Ling Coleman, Bill Simonds, Oscar Butler, Hazen Hay and Henry James.

Van Buren passes strict 'dangerous' building law

Owners or agents of buildings defined as dangerous under provisions of a new ordinance passed last week by the Van Buren Township Board will face a fine of up to $500, up to 90 days in jail, or both.

The new ordinance will become effective 30 days after its publication in the local newspaper, said Richard G. James, township attorney.

He explained to the board and audience that the new dangerous buildings ordinance will not apply to commercial and industrial buildings. He said the courts have not ruled that those two categories fall under the interpretation of "dwelling" as defined in state statutes.

James, who prepared the new ordinance, said he felt confident that it satisfies due process of law for township residents and would withstand court challenges.

The new ordinance makes it unlawful for an owner or agent to keep or maintain any dwelling defined as dangerous under its provisions. Dwellings are defined as "any house, building, structure, tent, shelter, trailer or vehicle, or portion thereof, (except railroad cars, on tracks or rights-of-way) which is occupied in whole or in part as the home, residence, living or sleeping place of one or more human beings, either permanently or transiently."

House trailers and other vehicles which are licensed may be occupied or used as a dwelling for reasonable lengths of time under the new ordinance, provided they are located in a park or licensed place. Also, such sites must be equipped with adequate safety and sanitary facilities.

Defects which make a dwelling dangerous under the new ordinance include: doors, aisles, passageways, or other exits not conforming to the township fire code; damages by fire, wind, flood, or other causes which made its structural strength less than minimum requirements of the township building code; whenever any portion can fall or collapse and injure persons or damage property; walls or other structural portions which have settled and do not meet new construction requirements of the township building code; likelihood of collapse due to deterioration of faulty construction; unsafe for the purpose for which it is used; damaged condition makes it a nuisance to children or to afford lodging for criminals, vagrants or immoral persons; interior is accessible to trespassers; condition makes it unsanitary for human habitation or cause sickness or to affect health, safety or general welfare of those living there.

Under the new ordinance, the township building inspector, upon finding such a dangerous building, notifies the owner or agent of a date for a show cause hearing.

The building inspector will also file a notice with a "hearings officer" who is appointed by the township supervisor to take

Park ordinance is approved

At the request of the Belleville parks and recreation commission and the city planning commission, the city council gave the green light Monday night to drafting a city park ordinance.

The purpose of the ordinance will be to establish rules and regulations for park usage and to provide enforcement provisions for those rules and regulations.

In other action Monday night relating to parks, the council established closing hours for Horizon Park. The park will be posted closed from 10 p.m. to 7 a.m.

The council also received a communication from the Wayne County Road Commission which rejected the city's request that Victory Park be turned over to the city. The county proposal was that the city appropriate money to help maintain Victory Park.

Councilmen didn't take long to reject that idea, pointing out that there were no funds in the budget for such assistance.

Council members have expressed concern that the county has not been maintaining the park, pointing out that volunteers from various groups have been keeping the parks up.

Larry Smith among top students

James F. Richendollar, principal of the Belleville School, has announced that senior Larry M. Smith is being commended for performance on the PSAT-NMSQT by the National Achievement Scholarship Program for Outstanding Black Students.

He is among the top seven percent of some 70,000 black students who took the 1979 PSAT-NMSQT and requested consideration in the 1981 Achievement Scholarship competition.

"Larry has displayed academic promise, and we hope he will receive encouragement to continue his education," Richendollar said. A roster identifying the commended students will be sent to about 1,850 regionally accredited U.S. colleges and universities.

Black students who will be completing secondary school and entering college in 1982 and wish to enter the 18th annual (1982) Achievement Program took the PSAT-NMSQT last week at Belleville High School.

Council approves Downtown Revitalization plan

Goal is to achieve viable shopping environment in city

The Romulus Business District Association presented "Strategy and Design for Downtown Revitalization of Romulus", to the City Council.

The study was done by Christopher Wzacny and Associates, Inc. and presented to City Council for approval and to be accepted as part master plan of City.

The Romulus Planning Commission, at a public hearing reviewed the study, approved it, and favorably recommend its adoption to the Romulus City Council as a part of the master plan for the community.

In a unanimous vote the City Council concurred and accepted the CBDA Revitalization Plan and made it part of the City Master Plan.

The study was made in conjunction with the businessmen of the RCBDA and the City of Romulus. The planners, Christopher Wzacny and Associates, Inc. took over a year in the preparation of the study.

The goals of the "Strategy and Design for Downtown Revitalization of Romulus" is to achieve an economic, viable, and amenable shopping environment.

The goals will be accomplished by a new downtown streetscape design, which will center along Goddard and Shook Road, which will be the heart of the commercial district. The intent of the streetscape design is to establish a downtown community which clearly communicates a pleasant shopping environment.

The theme of the streetscape will be "Old Village Romulus" and will include pole mounted street lighting to reflect the 19th and 20th century periods, resurfaced streets, new sidewalks, street furniture compatible with the design, shade trees, more parking, including angle parking, and parking adjacent and north of the new senior citizens building.

The City Council in approving the "Strategy and Design for Downtown Revitalization of Romulus" was enthusiastic about the proposed revitalization, which will bring about a Romulus Renaissance. Members praised the Romulus Central Business District for their efforts in bringing about the completion of the study. Implementation of the plan will now proceed.

Merchants are already following through with recommended improvements of the study by revitalizing and rehabilitating of their buildings.

The completion of our new beautiful senior citizens building; the revitalization of downtown Romulus will make our community a much more attractive area in which to live and shop.

The proposed design for downtown revitalization will make Romulus a more viable and attractive area at which to shop and should encourage additional stores to establish. This will give the Romulus consumer a better choice for shopping. It is estimated that completion of the revitalization and streetscape plan will take about 2 years.

Sumpter treasurer admits he took missing $1,000

"I couldn't get the money back in," explained the treasurer.

Russell said he had made a "full and complete statement" to township police Thursday and had announced his intention of resigning to a workshop session of the township board that same night.

The treasurer said the township board at that point did not ask for his resignation.

On Friday, Russell said he withdrew funds from his personal bank account and repaid the missing $1,000 to the water operations fund.

The treasurer's written letter of resignation which he planned to give to the township board last night stated: "We often hear it said that truly 'big men' are at their best in handling big affairs and that they falter and fail when confronted by petty irritations.

"I have faltered and failed the people of Sumpter Township and I am sorry. My career is gone. My reputation is ruined. My wife and children have been humiliated and I am trapped in a web of my own making.

"Whatever the result may be, I shall carry to my grave the consciousness that I meant well for my township. I do hereby submit my resignation as treasurer of Sumpter Township effective immediately. Thank you and goodbye."

Tuesday morning, Chief Brown said the police department had a responsibility to the community to take action in view of Russell's confession.

But, he emphasized, he planned "to wait and see what the board will do first."

Whether Russell would be charged with embezzlement remains in doubt, Brown said, until he knows what the township board plans to do.

The chief said he sees no action by the township's bonding company, since the treasurer had made restitution of the missing money.

Should action be taken to press charges against Russell, exact nature of those charges will be up to the prosecuting attorney, he added.

Robbery

Police Monday said arrests are imminent in the robbery of Elliott's Service Station, Ecorse and Hannan roads, Romulus, last week (Tuesday) about 1 p.m.

Two black males, one about 55 and the other in his early 20s, are being sought, said Det. Ed Lindberg of the Wayne County Sheriff's Dept.

A black female in her 40s who accompanied the two men, has been identified, Lindberg said. He said he hopes to wrap up the case soon.

According to investigation by Lindberg and Det. Robert Pond, one of the two men used an automatic handgun in taking $260 in cash and four quarts of oil from the service station attendant, David Brown, 48, of Inkster.

Voters

The third proposal on the Huron ballot is one that seeks voter approval on whether additional millage should be levied to generate not more than $1,700,000 for construction and operation of a water supply facility to extend the township water supply system. The money would be paid back over a 20-year period.

In Romulus, no candidates are running for local offices as 1980 is an even-numbered year, the time when only township offices are at stake in Michigan.

But, two local proposals will confront Romulus voters — one for an amendment to the city charter that would authorize 4-year terms for all elected city officials and a second for adoption of a city ordinance to establish a Civil Service System for city employees.

RCBDA seeking new members

Romulus Central Business District Association is seeking new members for its downtown organization.

According to a study by Wzacny & Associates, Inc., City Planner, Downtown Romulus includes all businesses along Goddard Rd. — Huron River Drive from Wayne Road to I-275.

The goals of the Romulus Central Business District (RCBDA) are to achieve a sound economical, viable shopping environment by revitalizing and rehabilitating the Downtown Romulus Business District and to provide a balanced mix of retail, service, and office uses, and where needed, opportunities for new stores or expansion of existing facilities.

To accomplish this goal the RCBDA is seeking to expand its membership to include all business persons along Goddard — Huron River Drive from Wayne Rd. to I-275. Thus through total involvement the plan to rehabilitate and revitalize can be more easily accomplished.

Any business person who desires to join, that has an establishment within this area please contact Leo M. Kalota, Manufacturers National Bank — 941-0600, Joyce Palmer, Arc Realty — 941-8700, William Simonds, Bilmar Supermarket — 942-0420, and Ken Whise, Family Pharmacy — 941-0755.

Want to dance?

Dance Fit, a fun exercise program set to music, will be offered by the Romulus Recreation department (located at 36515 Vibbons, phone number 941-0666) in conjunction with the Wayne-Westland YMCA. Registration will be taken at the Romulus Recreation Department.

This class will be held on Mondays and Wednesday's from 3 p.m. until 4 p.m. starting on Nov. 3 and will end Dec. 17. The first class will be held at North Junior High (located at 37300 Wick Rd., Romulus).

In order to provide an effective safe program a health screening will be provided at the first class on Nov. 3. There are over 300 ladies currently involved in this unique exercise program.

The program is designed to tone muscles, reduce percentage of body fat, and elicit the same results as jogging or biking on heart and lungs.

Fire officials say arson is cause of Lemontree blaze

storage bins used by tenants, said Price.

She went to the scene, as did Fire Marshal Delaney. Information supplied by Price Friday and the following Monday indicated both the Tuesday morning and Thursday night fires were arson.

Price said she had several "hot leads", but that no suspects have been questioned or taken into custody. She said some of the tenants from Building 19 had been moved into Building 44.

Miss Shumate told the Enterprise that one of her employees had been told by an investigator that the two fires were not related because they differed sharply in the way each had been started. She confirmed that two families from the burned building had been relocated to Building 44.

On Friday following the small fire in Building 44, Clerk Craven said she had received a report that three young boys had been seen leaving the basement area shortly before the fire was reported.

Price said her investigation had turned up the same information, but could not say at this time whether the boys were connected to the small basement fire.

Investigation after the large blaze in Building 19 led investigators to believe it started in Apartment 307, located in the middle of the building and on the third floor.

As the blaze progressed, a portion of the roof fell in and started a "secondary fire" in Apartment 103 on the first floor, according to Mitchell.

The secondary fire added to the difficulty that firemen experienced in putting out the blaze in Building 19, Mitchell said.

When the fire was first reported Tuesday morning, Miss Shumate said about a dozen Lemontree personnel went over to Building 19 with master keys and began telling tenants to leave the burning structure.

"Several shift workers were still asleep and had to be awakened," explained the manager, "but everyone was brought out safely."

Miss Shumate commended the residents of the burned building and those in other complex buildings for their help and cooperation during the time that the fire raged out of control.

"They all made the best out of a bad situation," she said.

The next few days after the fire, the Dearborn chapter of the American Red Cross arrived at Lemontree to issue vouchers to victims of the blaze that could be redeemed at area stores for food, clothing, basic furniture and bedding.

Some reports received by the Enterprise said that firemen had difficulty in some instances in getting firetrucks into position to pour water on the blaze because of the lack of fire lanes.

It was reported that snorkel units were forced to shoot water long distances to hit flames on the building's roof. By the time water got to the fire, it was only a spray and did little to put out the blaze.

Miss Shumate said other Lemontree residents also had contributed food, clothing, furniture and money to victims of the Tuesday blaze.

Lemontree was hit by an $800,000 fire in January of 1976, putting tenants in 33 apartment units out of their homes. In September of 1977, fire in a storage room inflicted $50,000 in damages, she said.

Contrary to reports carried in another newspaper, Miss Shumate said no one was killed in the 1976 blaze.

Although some tenants of Building 19, the scene of last week's costly fire, had smoke detectors, none are required by the township for existing buildings, said Stan Price, township building department director.

The only time the township mandates installation of smoke detectors in existing buildings is when certification is requested by mortgage companies or other agencies, explained Price.

However, the township does require smoke detectors in all new construction, he added.

Miss Shumate said all apartment units at Lemontree have fire extinguishers which are inspected at regular intervals.

A Holiday Inn treat

Noon day lunchers relax at the Aintree Cafe under the roof of the huge Metrodome at Holiday Inn in Romulus. The new eating spot, featuring a full luncheon menu, has become a favorite stop during the week for area residents and visitors to the city staying at the well-known motel.

Light up a life

"LIGHT UP A LIFE" to "Bring 'em Back Alive!" is the Halloween safety message this scary skeleton is spreading with a flashlight, grinning Jack-o-Lantern and highly visible face makeup. Automobile Club of Michigan urges parents to equip young trick-or-treaters with flashlights to light their way and make them more visible to motorists Halloween night. The stark white makeup and gloves on Auto Club employee Angela Palmeri represent the correct way to dress for trick-or-treating. Without those safety features, her black costume would make her nearly impossible to see in darkness. Other safety tips: stay away from masks and use makeup; keep costumes short enough so they won't trip tiny feet; make costumes of bright colors and apply luminescent paint or tape to make them even more visible, and caution children to cross only at intersections and to look both ways before stepping off the curb.

The Queen and Her Court

These lovely young ladies were stunningly attractive as they comprised the queen and her court for Belleville High School at Homecoming ceremonies Oct. 17. And they inspired the football players to play stunning football as the Tigers defeated a good Dearborn grid squad, 10-7, to make homecoming a very merry one. Queen Lois Ostrowski (center) was crowned during halftime ceremonies and she is accompanied by her court, Kim Teall (from left), Laura Richendollar, Anne Ostrowski and Chery Griffin. It's not sure whether the Queen and her court are entirely responsible, but Belleville defeated Allen Park last Friday for its second win in a row and, for the first time in 15 years, the Tigers can win their third consecutive game when they play at Canton at 7:30 Friday night.—ANP Photo by Lothar Konietzko.

Few road travel problems anticipated for hunters

Northbound traffic the day before the firearm deer season opens on Saturday (Nov. 15) should be the heaviest in five years, but hunters should encounter few travel problems, according to Automobile Club of Michigan.

"This is the first season since 1975 that opening day will fall on a Saturday," explained Auto Club Touring Manager Joseph Ratke.

"And despite rising gasoline costs and a trend towards increased pressure in southern Michigan, most of the state's 700,000-plus orange army will be heading for the northern two-thirds of the state on Friday, (Nov. 14)," Ratke said.

State Department of Natural Resources officials predict that approximately 80,000 buck deer will be taken over the 15-day season. That total is about 10 percent below last year's due to population drops caused by the harsh winters of 1977 and 1978. In all, nearly 118,000 buck and antlerless deer should be bagged by Nov. 30.

"The only traffic problem hunters may face is along I-75 near the Zilwaukee Bridge north of Saginaw," Ratke said.

Periodic slowdowns could result both north and south of the span, where three lanes of traffic merge into two. To help cut the possibility of further jams, Saginaw River shippers have been asked to voluntarily restrict movements causing bridge openings during peak traffic hours Nov. 14 and 16.

Auto Club predicts that northbound deer hunter traffic should be heaviest between 2 p.m. and midnight Friday (Nov. 14), and 5 a.m. and 5 p.m. on Saturday (Nov. 15). Southbound hunters on Sunday (Nov. 16) will find heavy traffic between 2 and 11 p.m.

While hunter-vehicle crossings have been dropping in recent years, Mackinac Bridge officials expect volume to nearly equal last year's total of 18,000 before the season ends on Nov. 30.

Auto Club reminds hunters that they must wear either a hat, vest or coat of blaze orange to hunt public lands.

Auto Club will provide traffic bulletins via radio for traveling hunters between 8 a.m. and 11 p.m. on Friday (Nov. 14) and from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. Saturday (Nov. 15) in addition to its weekly road condition reports from 2 to 11 p.m. on Sunday (Nov. 16).

Lack of fire protection at Lemontree queried

EDITOR: I would like to voice my opinion, regarding the two recent fires at Lemon Tree Apartments, which the one on Tuesday, October 21, 1980, was a major fire, displacing 75 tenants.

As a concerned resident of Lemon Tree its seems rather unusual that after two major fires in 1977 and now the one on October 21, 1980, why has the Township of Van Buren, not passed a local ordinance requiring apartment buildings to install fire and-or smoke detectors in the apartment building and-or each apartment.

Presently there is no type of fire detection equipment in any building or apartment. The only fire protection equipment provided by the apartment complex, is a small hand fire extinguisher in each apartment, which is only good for a small fire and not a major fire.

It is my understanding, that smoke and-or fire detectors are only required when a building is being built or it is being sold and being brought up to current building codes or in a mobile home. I do not know if the State of Michigan, has passed a law requiring apartment buildings to install required smoke detectors in the buildings or not.

I feel very strongly it is the responsibility of the Landlords of the various apartments to protect their tenants from fire when ever possible, by such means as a fire and-or smoke detectors.

I urge the Township of Van Buren and the State of Michigan, to pass legislation requiring, that all existing apartment buildings be equipped with fire and-or smoke detectors to protect the tenants living in the apartments.

In addition, I strongly urge, the management of Lemon Tree, to take it upon themselves to install smoke and-or fire detectors in their buildings. Even though there was no fire related deaths this time, but what would happen if another major fire happens again in the middle of the night, with no fire and-or smoke detectors.

A concerned resident of Lemon Tree Apartments

Romulus Dems oppose plant

EDITOR — Fulfilling the traditional role of the Democratic Party; that of representing the concerns of the people, the Romulus Democratic Club at its meeting adopted a position in opposition to the construction of a proposed sludge composting plant in the City of Romulus.

Because the people of the community have demonstrated their interests by their attendance at many meetings, and thus informed, have vehemently opposed such a facility; the Romulus Democratic Club stands behind the decision of the people and offers its assistance in resisting any attempt to locate the proposed sludge facility in our City.

Mobile homeowners rebel at rent policy

Romulus group casts a 'strike vote'

A rent strike authorization was approved almost unanimously last night by the members of the Metro Mobile Park Homeowners Association (MMPHA).

"We hope we won't have to strike," said Ronald Vipperman, president of the newly-formed tenant's group, at the meeting at Romulus City Hall. "But we need something to bargain with if negotiations break down."

The MMPHA will represent residents of the Metro Mobile Park on Van Born Road in Romulus, in dealing with park management and owners. Some 153 of the approximately 200 households are paid members of the association, which was registered with the state Oct. 16.

"We all have complaints about the maintenance and management of this park," Vipperman explained. "But individual families were afraid to argue with the manager's policies, for fear they'd be evicted."

"With the association, everyone is working together, and we have an attorney to back us up. We have the strength and confidence to fight for our rights."

A registered letter was sent Oct. 20 to the park owners, Growth Realty, Inc., of Beverly Hills, Calif., giving them until the end of the month to set up a meeting with the board of the MMPHA.

Among the priorities for discussion are violations of state laws and city safety ordinances, and

"a vast amount of grievances against the resident manager."

For example, state law requires that the range of lot rents be posted. This has not been done, according to members of the MMPHA.

"The rents themselves are outrageous," said Mildred Vipperman, secretary-treasurer of the group. "The average household is paying about $155 a month just to park their home."

"But what's worse, the rents are not consistent. One family may pay $140 while someone else is charged $200 ... for the same size trailer, same size family. It seems to be up to the manager's whims."

A related problem is length of leases. Mrs. Vipperman pointed out that state law requires a 12-month lease to be offered. "But here some have 8-month leases, some have 10-month leases ... we think management is staggering them so they won't all come due at once."

"New leases always mean a rent increase of $20 or $25," she explained. "Management didn't want us all upset at the same time, and talking to each other," she said.

The most frequently mentioned safety violation is the lack of lighting at the park entrance. A street light was erected last month, but it hasn't been wired yet; and the driveway is difficult to see at night.

Acquiring a security guard is another priority item, particularly since burglaries and vandalism have been increasing, according to Vipperman.

"There has even been a rape and an attempted rape, and we have a 'peeping tom.' The sheriff's department has some suspects under surveillance now."

Other resident complaints include lack of visitor parking, faulty construction of cement slabs, poor sewers and drains, and fees for pets.

"Speaking of pets, the resident manager charged one new family a $200 'entry fee' for her dog!" Mrs. Vipperman related. "It was written up on an old apartment house lease. We wrote to Growth Realty and got a refund."

Metro Mobile Park had a tenants' group once before, in 1976. "It took a rent strike on only one month to get the roads paved in here," said Patricia Umholtz, president of the old association and no longer a park resident. "And we won a court order demanding a lot of improvements be made."

"Unfortunately, many members dropped out when they got what they wanted," Mrs. Umholtz continued, "and the group fell apart in 1977. Most of the things the court ordered were never done."

Mrs. Vipperman was the instigator of the new group, working with Mrs. Umholtz and a small number of other concerned residents.

"Leaders of associations in other parks are amazed how quickly we got this group going," Mrs. Vipperman said.

Schmidt brothers run in marathon

Marathons are the name of the game for the Schmidt brothers — Terrance K. and Leland T. of Belleville who braved the inclement weather and the 26 miles plus to compete in the annual Detroit Free Press sponsored event.

Terrance, who has now competed in all three of the metropolitan newspapers' sponsored events toured the distance in 3 hours, 5 minutes and 20 seconds while Leland, with his second International meet under his belt, was clocked in 2 hours 58 minutes.

The two Belleville distance runners belong to the Ann Arbor Track Club and have participated this year in the Dexter-Ann Arbor 15-mile marathon and the Bobby Crim (Speaker of the House of Representatives) 10-mile run last August in Flint.

The two young athletes are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. T. Kenneth Schmidt of North Shore Drive in Belleville.

EMU appoints Manseau pharmacy supervisor

The Eastern Michigan University Board of Regents appointed Kerry F. Manseau pharmacy supervisor in the EMU Health Center at its regular monthly meeting.

Manseau, 30, replaces Joe Jeter who left the University to assume another position.

As a pharmacy supervisor, Manseau will procure and dispense pharmaceuticals, direct the operational activities of the pharmacy and oversee the training of pharmacy interns and students.

Specifically, he will plan, organize and direct the pharmacy's activities according to policies and standard practices of the profession, and state and federal laws.

Also, he will manage the expenditure of funds for the department and adjust departmental operations within budget limitations.

Prior to his appointment at EMU, Manseau was the manager of Andrew's Rexall Pharmacy in Belleville for three years.

Manseau also was the manager of Richardson's Pharmacy in Ann Arbor, as well as assistant manager and a pharmacy intern prior to his promotion.

Manseau earned his bachelor's degree in pharmacy from the University of Michigan in 1973. He is a licensed preceptor in Michigan.

He is a member of numerous professional and social organizations including the American Pharmaceutical Association, the Michigan State Pharmaceutical Association and the Washtenaw County Pharmaceutical Society.

He and his family are residents of Dearborn. His appointment is effective immediately.

Here are some tips on shooting outdoor pictures

By DON GREEN

Here are some tips for when you are out walking in the woods and parks taking pictures this fall:

Let's look at some of the films for the job. If you like to shoot color slides try a film like Ektachrome 64 or Kodachrome 64. They are both daylight films which means you should use them between the hours of 9:00 a.m. and 4:00 p.m.

I like to use these films on those crisp clear days when the sun is peeking through clouds and lighting the fall colors like someone has turned a giant spot light on them.

You will find these films will pick up reds and yellows very well and do a nice job on the blue sky.

I suggest a shutter speed of 1-125th second and f-11 or 8-8 will pick up the soft shadows.

You may want to try a sky filter to help minimize bluish casts that are frequently seen in pictures taken in the shade under clear blue skies.

No exposure increase is necessary with this film. Daylight films can be used indoors with electronic flash but when using Ektachrome you may find a bluish cast to your slides on the fringe areas of the pictures where the coverage of the flash was not quite sufficient.

This can be overcome by use of an 81B filter and increasing your exposure by 1-3 stop.

If color prints are your fancy, Kodachrome II is a good color negative film. This film is rated ASA 80 and balanced for daylight. You will not need a sky filter with this film as the printer can correct any excessive bluish cast that may develop.

Try a shutter speed of 1-125th of a second and an f-stop of f-8 or f-11 on a sunny day. Kodachrome II can be used indoors with an electronic flash but like Ektachrome 64 film an 81B filter may be needed and an increase of exposure of 1-3 stop to eliminate any blue casts may be necessary.

The color negative film I like to use is Kodak's Vericolor II Professional Type S. VPS has an ASA of 100 and needs no filtration under day light conditions. This film will render fine rich colors and has excellent reproduction possibilities.

CAUTION: You will need to have this film processed right away so as not to lose any of its color as this film is very sensitive to temperature. Try a shutter speed of 1-125th of a second and an aperture of f-11 under weak hazy sun and soft shadows and f-16 with bright sun and distinct shadows.

Pets and Animals

Cats need shots to keep healthy

By STANLEY E. BARTKIEWICZ,
D.V.M.
Bartz Animal Hospital

Cats, as well as dogs, need vaccines. Cats are susceptible to Panleukopenia, commonly called Feline Distemper. This disease is caused by a virus. The virus is in the same family as the Canine Parvovirus. It causes many of the same symptoms, for example, a decrease in white blood cells, a vomiting, and severe diarrhea with dehydration. The virus also causes some different symptoms such as brain damage in unborn and newborn kittens. Vaccination is the only means of protecting your cat from this disease.

Panleukopenia can occur in any aged cat. The incubation period is 1 to 10 days. Kittens have the least resistance to infection and the poorest ability to fight off the virus once they are exposed. Most kittens will die after acquiring this disease. The disease can be fatal in older cats as well, but with hospitalization, I.V. fluids, and antibiotics, many are saved.

The first signs of the disease may be a cat that is listless and doesn't want to eat or drink. This may then progress into vomiting and then to a fluidy diarrhea and dehydration.

Cats are also susceptible to viruses that can cause respiratory infections...Two of the most common respiratory infections are Feline Viral Rhinotracheitis and Feline Calici Virus. These viruses don't usually lead to death of your pet. They can be very discomforting though. The most common signs are a discharge from the eyes and the nose, making breathing difficult. The cat becomes listless and it may not eat.

Kittens are more susceptible than older cats to these viruses. Once an animal overcomes the disease, they may be carriers for up to one year, shedding the virus to other cats.

Vaccination will help protect your pet from these respiratory infections. If a cat is exposed to the viruses after being vaccinated, they usually show no signs at all; occasionally a cat may show only minor respiratory signs.

Cats are mammals and are susceptible to rabies. A yearly rabies vaccination may be given to prevent your pet from contracting this disease should it come in contact with a rabid animal.

Vaccinations for the respiratory diseases and the Feline Distemper can be started between 6 to 10 weeks of age. Kittens need a series of vaccinations and adults need an annual booster. The rabies vaccination can be given at 6 months of age and should be given yearly thereafter.

St. Joe's patients, attention

Because of nearby construction projects, the Emergency-Outpatient AATA bus line stop at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital on Huron River Drive will be closed for about three more weeks.

According to Elliott Guttman, vice president for facilities, engineering, and construction, all busses will be unloading passengers at the hospital's main entrance only.

Guttman said a special shuttle service would be available at the main entrance to transport patients and visitors to and from the Outpatient-Admitting and Emergency Room entrances, and also the Professional Office Building, which contains physician offices, the hospital's Walk-In Clinic, and other services.

Guttman said Dial-A-Ride would not be affected.

Killen's art wins award

Huron art student, Marianne Killen, received a trophy for her pencil drawing at the Wayne County 4-H Fair.

In August, Marianne entered three of her art works and received awards for all of them, the trophy for her pencil drawing, a first for the oil painting, and a 2nd for her pastel drawing.

Marianne also entered the three pictures in the Michigan State Fair, where she took a first for the pencil drawing and awards for the other two.

Marianne had previously taken Art I with teacher Ed Manning at Huron High. She is presently taking Drawing and Art II also with Mr. Manning at Huron.

Marianne will be selling her art work at the October Fest in the Southland Mall.

Future pictures by Marianne will be in the Huron Art Show in June.

Volunteers are needed

Volunteers are urgently needed to help combat America's number one killer, atherosclerosis. This disease is primarily responsible for heart attacks, strokes and related fatal diseases that account annually for some one million deaths or 53 percent of all deaths in the United States.

The University is seeking persons 28 through 64 years of age, who have had only one heart attack in the past 5 years. All such persons are asked to call the University of Minnesota Hyperlipidemia Study collect at 612-376-4494 for more information.

Want to quit smoking?

Westland doctor says he has solution to your problems

By BOB AMEEN
ANP Staff Writer

Want to quit smoking? You've tried about everything from Smoke Enders to hypnosis and you're still hooked?

Don't panic. A Westland doctor may have the solution to your problem with a unique new method.

For a one-month period, Dr. Karl Hanyi has been giving selected hard-core smokers a one time injection of four shots. He said only "natural" materials are contained in the liquid injection-novacaine, vitamin B-1 and several minerals.

The shots are given in acupuncture sites that control craving for tobacco — the inside of each ear and the corner of each nostril.

What's happened after one month of injecting patients has Dr. Hanyi bursting with joy. He reported that approximately 80 percent of the 100 pre-picked addicted smokers have quit, some immediately after the shots in his office!

He said one young girl, after her injections, asked if she could throw away her partially used package of cigarettes in his trash receptacle.

Dr. Hanyi, who has his medical office on Palmer Road, smoked heavily for years himself before he quit the hard way — sheer will power maintained until most the craving went away.

He learned that the revolutionary procedure was being used on the east coast by a Baltimore, Md. physician with a great deal of success.

Dr. Hanyi acquainted himself with the techniques involved and decided to choose 100 of his patients who were heavy smokers and who wanted to quit the habit. He told the selected patients that their shots would be free.

Although he said the normal charge back east runs from $200 to $300, the cost to Dr. Hanyi's patients for the four shots will be a nominal $50.

To his knowledge, only one other doctor who practices in Birmingham is using the new anti-smoking procedure in the Detroit metropolitan area. Prior to local introduction of the radically new technique, persons from the Detroit area had to travel to Baltimore to get the injections. With transportation costs included, the total cost ran in the hundreds of dollars for the treatment.

Before a patient is given the injections, Dr. Hanyi checks his heart and blood pressure to make certain that he is a suitable candidate with no likelihood of complications.

The actual treatment consists of one cubic centimeter of the liquid being injected into each of the four sites. Dr. Hanyi explained that the solution immediately numbs the nerves which are responsible for craving, thereby enhancing the patient's desire to give up smoking.

The initial high rate of success has given Dr. Hanyi the incentive to continue the new anti-smoking treatment he will continue to keep statistics on the number of patients who quit smoking.

He cautioned that his preliminary successful results are just that and that it will take a much longer period of time to conclusively show that the new method works with a high percentage of smokers.

Also, statistics compiled after a significantly longer period of time will determine if smokers who quit stay that way or resume the habit, the doctor stressed.

4-H'ers gather at Renaissance Center

Close to 1,000 4-H youth agents from across the country are convening Nov. 2-6 at Detroit's Renaissance Center for their 34th annual national conference.

The theme of the national conference is "Wheel Into The '80s." The meeting will include numerous professional improvement sessions featuring youth development specialists.

Classes for diabetics set in Taylor

Diabetics and their families can learn about the condition of diabetes mellitus, its control and treatment, and the relationship of diet in classes sponsored by the Wayne County Department of Health.

A series of classes for diabetics and their families will begin November 3, 1980, 7 to 9 p.m. at the South Health Center, 21201 Eureka Road, Taylor, and continue for five consecutive Monday evenings.

The importance of the diabetic's cooperation with his physician is stressed along with patient's responsibility in caring for himself in order to lead an active, normal life. All diabetics regardless of age may attend with written acknowledgement from their physician. Children under 14 should be accompanied by a parent.

To register for the class call the Wayne County Department of Health, 274-2800 or 729-2211, extension 390. 8:30 A.M. - 4:00 P.M.

The purpose of the meeting is to strengthen the youth workers' skills and the 4-H program nationwide.

According to Earl Threadgould, president of the Michigan Association of 4-H Youth Agents, which is hosting the conference, Detroit was selected as the site for the 1980 meeting because of its excellent conference facilities and its reputation for outstanding 4-H youth programs.

Michigan and the city of Detroit have earned a nationwide reputation for developing innovative youth programs that appeal to and are successful with today's young people," Threadgould said.

"Detroit was the natural choice to help our agents to wheel into a new decade of youth programming."

Highlights of the conference include a keynote address Nov. 3 by Thomas S. Haggai, would-be-renowned lecturer and humanitarian, and closing remarks Nov. 6 by Russell G. Mawby, president of the W. K. Kellogg Foundation and long-time 4-H supporter.

We're Glad You Asked!

Harold Rediske

UHT Memorial Funeral Home
HOW SHOULD I CHOOSE AN EXECUTOR?

The choice of an executor is one of the most important decisions you will ever make. Consider some of the duties of an executor. Among other things he must:

1. Locate your will.
2. Carry out the funeral arrangements, if no pre-arrangement has been made.
3. Probate the will and be appointed executor.
4. Keep accurate record of all estate transactions.
5. Open the safe deposit box, if any.
6. Assume control over all personal property.
7. Do whatever necessary to liquidate or to carry on the business.
8. Determine the debts due the estate and see that they are paid.
9. Arrange for the collection of all insurance payable to the estate.
10. Pay all taxes and other expenses of the estate.
11. Have all property, real and personal, appraised for tax purposes.
12. Defend the estate against any suits.
13. Submit a final accounting to the court.

Obviously, this is a substantial job requiring skill, patience, experience, judgement and intelligence. Making a will, getting your affairs in order, and pre-planning the funeral will make your executor's job easier. You should consult your attorney before making a final decision on whom to choose as your executor.

Armed Forces-they're spread around world

Navy Electronics Technician 3rd Class Keith E. Eglinton, son of Edward J. and Catherine E. Eglinton of 415 Rustic Lane E., Belleville, was graduated from Basic Electronics Technician School.

The course was conducted at the Navy Service School Command, Great Lakes, Ill. Students received introductory instruction on electronic circuit concepts, radar principles, and the basics of radio transmitters and receivers.

In addition, they studied the procedures for repairing amplifiers, transmitters, receivers and power supply lines.

A 1979 graduate of Lincoln High School, Ypsilanti, he joined the Navy in August 1979.

Private Ronald J. Kampsen II, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald J. Kampsen of New Boston, Mich., is attending basic training at Fort Leonard Wood, Mo.

During the training, students receive instruction in drill and ceremonies, weapons, map-reading, tactics, military courtesy, military justice, first aid, and Army history and traditions.

Marine Pvt. Anthony R. Brunetti Jr., son of David Hatch and Charlene B. Hatch of 50333 Willis Road, Belleville, has completed recruit training at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot, Parris Island, S.C.

During the 11-week training cycle, he learned the basics of battlefield survival. He was introduced to the typical daily routine that he will experience during his enlistment and studied the personal and professional standards traditionally exhibited by Marines.

He participated in an active physical conditioning program and gain proficiency in a variety of military skills, including first aid, rifle marksmanship and close order drill. Teamwork and self-discipline were emphasized throughout the training cycle.

A 1980 graduate of Lincoln Consolidated High School, Ypsilanti, he joined the Marine Corps in June 1980.

Navy Ensign Edward T. Doyle, son of Edward L. and Barbara J. Doyle of New Boston, was commissioned in his present rank upon completion of Aviation Officer Candidate School.

The 13-week course at the Naval Air Station, Pensacola, Fla., was designed to prepare candidates for their future duties and responsibilities as commissioned officers and to prepare them to enter primary flight training.

During the course, the prospective aviators received general military, academic, physical fitness and leadership training which included navigation, military justice, mathematics and physics. They also received pre-flight training which centered around aerodynamics, sea and land survival, aviation physiology, and basic aircraft engineering.

A 1976 graduate of Huron High School, and a 1980 graduate of the University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, Mich., with a bachelor of science degree, he joined the Navy in April 1979. His wife, Catherine, is the daughter of Arthur C. and Sheila J. George of 24379 Dugan Drive, New Boston.

Navy Gunner's Mate 1st Class Lawrence J. Kusak, whose wife, Nora, is the daughter of Burton A. and Mary Roberts of 29303 King Road, Romulus, recently participated in a rescue at sea.

He is a crewmember aboard the destroyer USS Hewitt, homeported in San Diego and currently operating as a unit of the U.S. 7th Fleet in the Western Pacific.

During operations in the South China Sea, Hewitt personnel sighted a small boat. Upon directing its airborne helicopter to investigate, 12 persons were discovered aboard the vessel, shouting and waving their arms. The Hewitt maneuvered alongside the boat and brought the refugees aboard. All were in good health and stated they had been at sea for 15 days, the last four adrift with a faulty engine.

The 563-foot long Hewitt has traveled more than 27,000 miles during its four months at sea. The 250-man crew has visited Hawaii, the Philippines, Singapore and Thailand. Primarily designed for anti-submarine warfare (ASW) the Hewitt is armed with guns, ASW torpedoes and ASW rockets.

Kusak joined the Navy in October 1968.

Marine Pvt. Eldenna L. Gaddy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil H. Gaddy of 10503 Miriam, Romulus, has completed recruit training at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot, Parris Island, S.C.

During the eight-week training cycle, she was introduced to the typical daily routine that she will experience during her enlistment, and studied the personal and professional standards traditionally exhibited by Marines.

She participated in an active physical conditioning program and gained proficiency in the variety of military skills including close order drill and first aid. Teamwork and self-discipline were emphasized throughout the training cycle.

A 1973 graduate of Romulus Senior High School, she joined the Marine Corps in June 1980.

Private Ronald J. Kampsen II, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald J. Kampsen of New Boston, Mich., is attending basic training at Fort Leonard Wood, Mo.

During the training, students receive instruction in drill and ceremonies, weapons, map-reading, tactics, military courtesy, military justice, first aid, and Army history and traditions.

Navy Aviation Machinist's Mate Airman Recruit Robert W. Hayes, son of Lea Hayes of 8701 88 Belleville Road, Belleville, has returned from a deployment in the Western Pacific and Indian Ocean.

He is a member of Fighter Squadron 211, based at the Miramar Naval Air Station, San Diego. While Deployed, his squadron was embarked aboard the aircraft carrier USS Constellation.

During the seven-month cruise, the Constellation set a new Pacific Fleet record of 10 continuous days at sea while operating in the Indian Ocean. The embarked air wing flew more than 28,000 sorties and logged more than 10,500 arrested landings.

The ship participated in several naval exercises with units from Great Britain, Singapore, Japan, Australia, and New Zealand. Port calls were made in Singapore, the Philippines, and Pusan, South Korea.

The long trip home was made extra special when 350 fathers, sons and friends of the crew embarked in Pearl Harbor, Hawaii for the final leg of the homeward journey.

Fighter Squadron 211 flies the F-14 "Tomcat", an all-weather fighter capable of air intercept as well as tactical bombing and providing close air support for ground troops.

A 1979 graduate of Belleville High School, Hayes joined the Navy in June 1979.

Captain Michael S. Ruxlow, son of Lois S. Ruxlow of Kansas City, Mo., and William B. Ruxlow of Romulus, has arrived for duty at Keflavik Airport, Iceland.

Captain Ruxlow, a weapons systems officer, was previously assigned at Clark Air Base, Philippines.

LEISURE LIFE

Racquetball—a healthy experience in Canton

By DENNIS NIEMIEC
Playtime Coordinator

Jeanne Foster of Canton has never claimed to be a good racquetball player. By her own admission, her hand-eye coordination is poor and the backhand needs a lot of work.

But win or lose, you'll find this mother of two competing every Tuesday night at the Rose Shores facility in a racquetball league sponsored by Canton's parks and recreation department. She's in the midst of her fifth 13-week session in this popular Canton program. And with good reason.

"It's great exercise," Foster declared. "Sure, I like to win but I never played sports before I got into racquetball. I'm still learning."

She rates among the middle of the pack in the Canton league's Class B competition (the city also sponsors a mens' circuit every Wednesday night).

"This kind of setup is better than block time," said Foster, "because you get to play a different person each week. Everybody knows each other—we go out as a group after the season finishes."

"I couldn't find anyone to play racquetball with when I first came to the area," added the Detroit native. "But I recommend it for anyone dieting or trying to keep their weight down."

Staying in shape means more than racquetball for Foster, however. She enjoys swimming and working out at a local health club as well. Her sons, Kenny, 9, and Bryan, 8, keep active in a number of sports including soccer and baseball.

"Most of the girls in our (racquetball) league used to be 21 and under," remarked Foster, a teller supervisor who attends data processing classes. "Now the majority are between 25 and 35. That's where I fit in."

Anyone interested in participating in future racquetball leagues in Canton can contact the recreation department at 397-1000.

MOVIES

Simon's 'Trick Pony' has too many songs

By STEVE K. WALZ
Special to Playtime
ONE TRICK PONY
from Warner Bros.
Pictures. Produced by Michael Tannen and directed by Robert Young. Starring Paul
Simon and Blair Brown.
Rated R.

Everybody knows how hard it is to stay on top in the music industry and Paul Simon magnifies that struggle in "One Trick Pony."

Simon, who wrote the script, paints a picture of despair as his character Jonah Levin, a once great 60's rock figure, is reduced to playing gigs in small clubs all over the country. The money is decent, but he knows that his career is currently at a dead end.

To complicate matters, Jonah's marriage has dissolved because of his constant road travel and his elusive dream of capturing past glory once again. His wife, as played by Blair Brown, is sympathetic to Jonah's cause and is even willing to reconcile if only he'd devote more time to his family instead of his fantasy.

Jonah knows his wife is right but his dream is like a "fix," so he accuses her of being boring.

During his road tours, Jonah meets up with some interesting characters. First he runs into Modeena Dandridge (played by Mare Winningham), a free spirited groupie. Then Jonah is reunited with a big record mogul (splendidly played by Rip Torn), who is willing to make him a star again if he adapts his song-writing for Top 40 airplay, "something with a hook." Levin ponders the offer, albeit cynically. But two things clinch the deal.

Paul Simon seeks musical salvation.

His performance at a 60's retrospective concert featuring the Lovin' Spoonful and Sam and Dave is greeted with optimism. And, the record mogul's wife (Joan Hackett), intrigued by Levin, beds him down.

So it's back to the recording studio for Jonah and his band and, yes, even his wife is happy. Yet Jonah's constant cynicism festers below the surface and when the record company decides to take one of his songs and add lush orchestration to it, he decides to pack it in, even with all that money and promise of big time publicity just around the corner.

What does Jonah do as his final act of music salvation? That's for you to find out but I guarantee it will leave you a bit frustrated since it's rather abrupt.

Simon's story has merit but his character is almost as boring as his wife. There are far too many songs in the picture (15) and it's a shame that the story couldn't have been developed a bit more to emphasize what becomes of Jonah and his family.

Could there be a sequel in the works?

Fishing Lines

By BOB SAWITSKI

Winterize your outboard motor

Last spring when one of my fishing buddies was preparing his boat for the fishing season, the first thing on his list was to take the outboard motor in for a tuneup.

But when the mechanic checked it over, he gave my buddy some bad news. He found that the whole lower unit had to be replaced, the valves needed to be reground, and a new carburetor was required, in addition to the tuneup. He ended up paying ten times more than he expected to pay.

Why was all this necessary? The mechanic's answer was that my hapless buddy did not winterize his outboard motor. You can bet he'll do it this year. And if your outboard motor is too big and heavy to remove from your boat and stash in your basement, you, too, better follow these steps:

First, submerge the prop in water (the experts use a flush plate, but an oil drum or a trash can will work). Start the motor and spray rust preventing oil directly into the carburetor until it stalls. This will lubricate and protect all internal working parts.

Also, remove the spark plugs and spray the oil into the openings, then replace the plugs. This will coat the cylinder walls and keep them from rusting or becoming ruined from freezing.

Restart the motor and run it for a few minutes to circulate the oil. Then disconnect the fuel line from the motor and let it run out of gas. Empty the fuel tank.

Then drain the lower unit. This is the part of the motor that hangs down the back of your boat and has a propeller on the bottom. The lower unit is full of grease, but it's possible that water has seeped in and will freeze and cause problems if it is allowed to remain over the winter months. When you're sure all the water and old grease is out, refill it with fresh grease.

This entire process can be completed in an hour or so, and you can rest assured your motor will be in top shape when you get it ready next spring.

The boat trailer should also be prepared for the long winter. Inspect your trailer thoroughly. Test each nut and bolt with a wrench to see if it has loosened. Sometimes bolts elongate their holes and such a test will detect this problem.

If you discover this has happened, a visit to a welding shop may be in order.

Check the rubber rollers for smooth rotation. IF they are hard to turn or are stuck, free them up now so they don't get worse during the storage period. Use rubber lubricant available at all auto supply stores.

Some boat owners like to raise the keel of their boats off the keel rollers with blocks of wood. This prevents the weight of the boat from flattening the rollers while it's in storage.

Inspect the wheel bearings for adequate lubrication and signs of water. If you find any trace of water, clean the bearings and check any bright surfaces for signs of rust pitting. If all is well, regrease and put it back together.

It may also be a good idea to block up the trailer axle to relieve the tires of the weight of the trailer and boat. Some fishermen remove the wheels and store them in a cool, dark place to prolong tire life.

See if there's any water inside the tail lights. If there is, get it out now. The lamp sockets will corrode if the water is left over the winter.

If you take your boat and trailer out of the garage during the winter (maybe to go on a fishing trip down South), apply sealing compound where the wires enter the trailer lights to keep winter road salt from getting in and corroding the wire connections.

Of course, the entire winterizing process should be repeated before returning home.

Don't forget the boat itself. If it has a flat floor, take pains to sponge out any and all water under the floor. This is especially important if your boat is made of aluminum. Water freezing in the hull can easily pop rivets and cause leaks.

Remember, the fishermen who get out on the water earliest each spring are usually the ones who did the best job of preparing their rigs for winter storage. And you may save a lot of money, too.

My buddy found this out the hard way.

What's That Sound?

By STEVE O'LEARY

Emmylou Harris produces beautiful Christmas album, 'Light of the Stable'

EMMYLOU HARRIS
"Light Of The Stable —
The Christmas Album"

As a rule of thumb, Christmas albums usually fit into one of two categories: the traditional kind, usually done best by the something-or-another choir, and on the other hand, there is the "big name artist" Christmas album.

Quite a few pop, country, and R&B groups have tried to pad their paychecks a bit by adding their own yuletide sound to the season, often with much less success than they anticipated. The Carpenters, John Denver, Charley Pride, Pattie Labelle, the list goes on and on. The Chipmunks even have two different LP's!

Anyway, most of these type of albums tend to be good for only a few spins on your turntable before the novelty wears off. Outside of Bing Crosby's many, the Elvis Christmas Album, and Phil Spector's "pop", X-mas LP's just don't fare real well. Now, we can add Emmylou Harris' "Light Of The Stable" to the list.

This is really a beautiful record, sure to help brighten up any household, as Emmylou's country voice fares very well on the selection of songs herein. "Silent Night" is given a mostly acoustic treatment, with some nice violins added by Ricky Skaggs.

All of your favorites are here — or at least mine are — "Little Drummer Boy," "Away In A Manger," "O Little Town Of Bethlehem." "The First Noel" is done acappella (sans instruments), with Harris' voice joining in beautiful harmony with Sharon Hicks and Cheryl Warren.

Other highlights include "Light Of The Stable," which features James Burton (Elvis' guitarist) and Rodney Crowell on guitars, as well as back-up vocals by the trio of Neil Young, Dolly Parton, and Linda Ronstadt. "Golden Cradle," a traditional Irish lullaby, is performed in a duet with Nancy Ahern, with the lone musical accompaniment provided by the guitar of Brian Ahern.

This is an album to put on about 11:45 on Christmas Eve, with all the lights out, a few candles lit, a mug of eggnog, and someone you care about next to you. I think it would even be more fun than opening presents.

Emmylou Harris

DRAMA

'Dracula' opens Wayne-Westland theatre season

Theater-goers who enjoy a quick-fire procession of super-quality thrills, surprises, shudders and sensations cannot afford to miss seeing "Dracula," the mystery of mysteries, that the Wayne-Westland Civic Theatre has selected as its 21st season opener.

For years "Dracula" has been thrilling England and still is playing to capacity audiences. The outstanding hit of the Fulton Theatre in New York, it has since been touring the country from Maine to California.

It is said that audiences everywhere have found the two hours of horror, surprises and thrills that invariably greet this play wherever played to be not only blood-curdling but most entertaining as well. "Dracula" even caused the most hardened of the "Now show me's" to shudder and shiver in their seats, and advance reports from co-directors Jerry and Jeannie Thomas promise that this production will be the best kind of blood-curdler imaginable.

The play was founded on Bram Stoker's famous novel of the same name and is the story of Lucy Seward (Lorraine Parent), daughter of Dr. Seward (Marv Nochman) a physician in charge of a sanatorium near London, who is mysteriously anemic. Dr. VanHelsing (Todd Hissong) a specialist in obscure diseases, suspects a vampire which, according to legend, sustains its earthly life by sucking the blood of approachable victims.

Instituting a search, VanHelsing uncovers Count Dracula (Toby Hissong) as such a vampire and, finding the grave, drives a stake through the heart of the corpse from which he comes, thus ending the vampire's existence.

Other cast members include Lucy's bewildered boyfriend Jonathon Harker (Terry Crouson), Renfield (Annette Aben), a fly-eating lunatic from the sanatorium, and some comic relief is added from the maid (Patty McShane) and Butterworth the attendant (Sean Moughan).

Producer David Carrick has set the show dates for Oct. 31 (Halloween night) and Nov. 1, 1980 at 8 p.m. at John Glenn High School Auditorium, on Marquette in Westland between Wayne and Newburg roads. Tickets are adults, $3.50, students and senior citizens, $2. Group rates are available.

For more ticket information contact Michael Swain at 495-0422 or Ann Button at 261-3183.

The sinister Dracula (Toby Hissong) hovers hungrily over the inviting neck of Miss Lucy Seward (Lorraine Parent) in the Wayne-Westland Civic Theatre's production of "Dracula."

'Rainmaker' opens in Dearborn

The romantic comedy "The Rainmaker" will be presented by the Players Guild of Dearborn starting Friday for two weekends.

Rancher H. C. Curry believes that every cloud has a silver lining in "The Rainmaker," but there hasn't been a cloud in the sky for weeks. Then there's the problem of finding a husband for daughter Lizzie.

Starbuck, played by Westland's Dan Fish, is the rainmaker and he promises a downpour for a mere hundred dollars. Before the play is over, the rainmaker and the deputy sheriff are competing for Lizzie's hand, which pleases the Curry clan.

When "The Rainmaker" opened in New York, the critics called it "A cloudburst of a hit" and a "downpour of laughs."

Performances will be held on Oct. 31 and Nov. 1, 2, 7, 8 and 9 at 8 p.m. at the Guild's playhouse, located at 21730 Madison in Dearborn. Tickets are priced at $4.50 (senior citizen tickets are $3.50 for the Nov. 2 performance).

For ticket information and reservations, call 565-5392.

Turkey Shoot planned

Westland boys and girls between the ages of nine and 17 are eligible to compete in the city's annual Turkey Shoot on Nov. 8 (Saturday) at the Westland police station gun range.

Youngsters will shoot 10 times at a target in a five-minute limit with prizes to be awarded for highest total points in three age divisions. All air rifles and targets will be supplied by the Westland Parks and Recreation Department, the event sponsor.

Starting times are as follows: nine-years-old, 10 a.m.; 10, 11 a.m.; 11, noon; 12, 1 p.m.; 13, 2 and 2:30 p.m., and 14-17, 3 p.m. Participants must check in at least 15 minutes prior to their starting time (awards are set for presentation at 4 p.m. at the police station).

Prizes include turkeys, cornish hens, a roasting chicken and ribbons for the highest scores.

Boys and girls can register for the Turkey Shoot at the Melvin Bailey Recreation Center, 36651 Ford, or the Westland Multipurpose Arena, 62210 Wildwood. Participants should report to the Bailey Center on the day of the competition. Further information can be obtained by calling the recreation department at 722-7620.

Electronics prices stable

You pay more — a lot more — today for food, clothing, homes, cars, gas, vacations — you name it and up it has gone.

Battered and bruised by the skyrocketing increases in the cost of living, you may find comfort in the inflation fighting efforts of the consumer electronics industry.

While the Consumer Price Index (CPI) for all goods and services has skyrocketed past 246 from a base of 100 in 1967, consumer electronics prices have barely moved past 105-106 in the past 13 years and have decreased from levels of the 1950s.

New age is dawning in consumer electronics

By DAVID LACHENBRUCH
Special to Playtime

A new age is dawning in home entertainment, geared to the new glamour word—video. Consumer electronic products for 1981, now on display at area dealers, reflect the growing excitement that video is adding to the field of home entertainment, as high fidelity in vision joins high fidelity in sound.

The video cassette recorder, or VCR, has become established as a major home product; with nearly 1½ million now in use, Americans are expected to buy more than 650,000 of these triple-treat machines in 1980, and a greater number in 1981, and a greater number in 1982. The VCR can be used as a handy time-shift machine, to record and store television programs for viewing at any time; as an electronic home theater, to show prerecorded cassettes which may be purchased or rented; or, with a color video camera, to make color and sound recordings of family and friends.

The new 1981 VCR models add more versatility to an already versatile instrument. Many of them now have forward and reverse "visual scan"—which means that the picture may be speeded up for quick location of any program segment. They also include stop-motion, or "freeze-frame," as well as slow motion.

Battery-operated portable VCRs are becoming more portable, some weighing just a little over 11 pounds, and new, more compact color cameras make "on-location" shooting more convenient.

The VCR is now being joined by a new home video product—the videodisc player. Just as the VCR is a descendant of the audio tape recorder, which can make recordings and play them back, the videodisc player is the see-and-hear equivalent of the phonograph.

It is designed as a reasonably-priced means of playing back visual and aural recordings in high fidelity sound and color. Videodisc players and program discs—including recent and classic movies as well as concerts and instructional programs—are available now in some areas of the United States and are scheduled to go nationwide early next year.

Both the VCR and the videodisc player are designed to be attached to the home TV set. Because both systems can provide sharp and clear pictures (and the videodisc can rival the audio disc in sound quality), they are bringing new high fidelity to the home television set.

At the same time, the 1981 TVs have been upgraded for clearer, sharper pictures and better sound, and improved home TV projection systems permit the viewing of recorded material (as well as standard television), in virtually theatrical ambience.

The coming together of sight and sound into a new high fidelity medium is reflected in new vitality for audio products. Any home VCR or videodisc player may be plugged into a home audio system for vastly improved sound. Even relatively low-priced compact audio systems have been upgraded this year, many of them rivaling the quality of lower-priced components.

With the public becoming increasingly audio-conscious, the entire area of autostand is booming, and component systems, including tape players, stereo-FM and AM tuners, boosters, power amplifiers, dynamic equalizers and high-quality speakers, are increasingly being installed in automobiles. Some of these installations now rival better home stereo systems in fidelity.

Home stereo fidelity is also being rivaled in go-anywhere sound equipment—the latest being the pocket stereo tape player, whose featherweight earphones provide amazing sound quality.

With hi-fi and portable TV now entertaining away from the home, the latest consumer electronic wonder—the minicomputer—is also being liberated from the power cord, and small hand-held units are beginning to perform complex tasks wherever they're carried.

At home, the video game is not only providing entertainment, but adding new intelligence—so that many of today's "games" now also do the duties of elementary computers.

Since some of the video games and home computers make it possible to compose and play musical selections, it may be only a matter of time before they, too, join the revolution which is sweeping home information and entertainment—combining high fidelity for the ears with high fidelity for the eyes.

Technological advances make computers affordable for consumers

Technological advances have reduced the size, price and complexity of computers, making them affordable to the everyday consumer, small businessman and professional person.

The Atari 400 personal computer can be used for information, communication, education, finances, record keeping and entertainment.

The Atari 800 is a top-of-the-line personal computer system, with expandable memory, advanced peripheral components and comprehensive software library.

Both computer systems are designed for use by people with little or no previous computer knowledge. At the same time, they do not compromise capability for the sophisticated user.

A number of optional accessories are available to expand even further the computer's capability.

Imagination Machine

Determined to balance your budget? APF Electronics' Imagination Machine is the personal computer which can hold you budget and plan for expenses. In addition, the entire family can choose from the library of programs for education, home management and entertainment. Computers include memory, color, music synthesizer and expandable options. The new basic tutor program teaches computer programming using the Imagination Machine as the instructor. For more information on personal computers, check with your local computer outlet.

Video games provide hours of enjoyment

BY ART LEVIS
Special to Playtime

Ever want to step up to the plate and belt a homer over the right field fence in Yankee Stadium? Or flash through the sky in your Superman uniform searching for bad guys? Or beat the Vegas slots for thousands of dollars?

Well, now you can do all those and more right in your living room with one of the new generation of game cartridges now being produced by the nation's video game manufacturers for easy hook-up to your television set through the antenna terminals.

There are now literally hundreds of different cartridges available for these versatile video games at local consumer electronics stores, ranging from space wars to western shootouts to challenging games of skill and logic.

And, if you want to take your games outside the home, suppliers of electronic games are also offering a huge variety of handheld models. These little portables include everything from football to horse racing games, with some of the country's favorite board games (Scrabble, etc.) now available in electronic versions.

Never has the consumer been offered more options in both video and non-video electronics games than now. The first video games—attached to your TV set through the antenna terminals—introduced several years ago now seem little more than electronic Model A's compared with the new crop of games.

Those first models were confined primarily to playing back-and-forth, Ping Pong type games in which the players' only option was controlling a ball that bounced to one side of the screen then back to the other side.

Now video games are programmable, which means that once you buy the console which connects to the TV set, new games can constantly be played simply through the purchase of additional cartridges. And, those cartridges pack more playing power than ever before.

But, it's not all fun and games in the video field. Game manufacturers have discovered that there is a tremendous need for non-game educational and instructional cartridges, and you can now purchase basic math instruction programs from several different video game companies.

A few are even offering cartridges designed to teach users the fundamentals of computer programming, including instruction in BASIC—the most common language used to communicate with computers.

In handheld and desk-top non-video electronic models, a number of non-game models are now being offered. One company is selling a desk-top console designed to help children learn a variety of different skills, including spelling, math and music.

Newlyweds making home in Bradenton, Florida

Bouquets of white gladiolas and yellow carnations graced the altar of St. Paul Lutheran Church in New Boston as Susan Marie Morris and Ralph Lawrence McInnis exchanged wedding bands and nuptial vows on Aug. 2.

The Rev. Carl F. Trosien presided at the six o'clock rite which joined in marriage the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rudy H. Morris of 15250 Huron River Dr., Romulus, and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence A. McInnis of Bradenton, Fla.

Mrs. Ruth Richert was organist. Ruth Martin, one of two soloists, sang "Longer" with guitar accompaniment by Frank Martin and Mrs. Donna Leaf, the bride's aunt, sang "The Lord's Prayer."

Escorted to the sanctuary by her father, Susan was gown in the white, short-sleeved dress which her mother had worn on her wedding day 26 years earlier. The taffeta frock was fashioned with a scoop neckline enhanced with Alencon lace.

Her silk illusion veil, which fell to three-quarter length, was held by a floral headpiece of yellow and white miniature roses and baby's breath matching those in her cascade bouquet which also included stephanotis and English ivy.

Attending the young couple were Diane Daubresse, the bride's cousin from Bradenton, Fla., as maid of honor, and Gary Cox of Bradenton, the best man.

Others making up the bridal coterie were Ruth Martin of Dayton, O.; Mary Schultz of Fort Myers, Fla., the bride's college roommate; Pamela Nichols of Dexter; and Nancy McInnes of Tampa, Fla., the bridegroom's sister.

Sea green polyester gowns in the empire mode with spaghetti strap bodices and chiffon capes were worn by the quintet whose bouquets were made up of yellow carnations, white daisy mums and baby's breath. Their headpieces, also, fresh blooms, were yellow carnations and baby's breath.

Groomsmen included Trey Cloud and Pat Watson, both of Bradenton, and Robert Morris of Sarasota, Fla. and Paul Morris of Romulus, both brothers of the bride.

Ringbearer was 5-year-old Andrew Wisniewski and flower girl was 7-year-old Laura Wisniewski, cousins of the bride and the children of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Wisniewski.

Mrs. Morris chose for her daughter's wedding a formal yellow qiana gown with a matching cap-sleeved jacket to which she pinned her Georgiana orchid. A similar corsage was worn by the bridegroom's mother who donned a formal-length powder blue gown with a crystal-pleated skirt.

A reception for 200 guests followed at the Hilton Airport Inn of Romulus. Because of Hurricane Allen, the planned honeymoon to St. Lucia in the British West Indies had to be cancelled.

Making their new home at 4012 3rd Ave. NW, Bradenton, Fla., the newlyweds are employed in Tampa and Bradenton, the bride as a social worker for Hillsborough County Schools and her husband as showroom manager for Consolidated Electric Supply.

The new Mrs. McInnis is a 1978 honors graduate of the University of South Florida where she earned her bachelor's degree in social work. The bridegroom also graduated from USF in 1978 and holds a bachelor's degree in fine arts.

Mountain Jack's in Ann Arbor was the setting Aug. 1 for the rehearsal dinner given by the bridegroom's parents.

Boyne Highlands setting for autumn wedding ceremony

Graham Chapel, overlooking the fall-colored mountains and valleys at Boyne Highlands, was the scene Oct. 11 for the wedding of Christine Carol Kuchta and Richard Thornton Brodhead III.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony S. Kuchta of Dearborn and the granddaughter of Mrs. Leona M. Agge of Belleville, who motored to Harbor Springs for the festivities.

The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Jack Allen of Harbor Springs and the late R. T. Brodhead II.

For her wedding day Christine wore an ivory gown with lace trimming the bodice, sleeves and self train. She also wore the same short veil used by her sister, Eileen, who was a 1979 bride. The first communion veil worn by all the Kuchta daughters is sewn into the veil.

Mrs. Rainie Giltner of Bradenton, Fla. and Park City, Utah was matron of honor and Debbie Richardson of Dearborn the only bridesmaid. Both wore formal gowns of dusty blue and, like the bride, carried bouquets of fall-colored blooms touched with blue.

Serving as best man was Fraser McSkimmons of Grosse Pointe Farms, Brian Brodhead of Grosse Pointe was the only usher at his brother's wedding.

Music for the ceremony was provided by Debbie Goetze of Milwaukee, Wisc., who played the flute, and Tom Jann of Edwardsburg, Wisc. who sang and played the guitar.

Following the ceremony, a cocktail-dinner reception was held at the historic Harbour Inn overlooking Little Traverse Bay.

Junior Study Club hears Girl Scout rep; sees film clips

Members and guests of the Belleville Junior Study Club, 16 in all, met Oct. 15 at the Willis Road home of Suzie Druker where Jill Karolye, Troop Services Director of Girl Scouts at Edgemont and St. Anthony Schools, spoke. She was introduced by club member Rosita Vance, who assisted in the Scouting presentation and two short film strips, "What's It All About" and "A Place Apart".

The first was a brief history of Girl Scouts in America, how they have evolved over the years and their purpose today. The second depicted a multi-acre park created for public use by a single Girl Scout troop and how they had worked with the community to include such things as a nature preserve and historical park. A discussion on the Mosley-Bennet-Barlow Nature Conservancy followed.

Members later drew names for the December gift exchange and enjoyed apple pie and cider provided by Sharon Matthews. They also made final preparations for the annual "Ingathering" to be held Nov. 1 at Girlstown which is funded by the Michigan Federated Women's Clubs.

MR. AND MRS. MARK S. VERROT

San Francisco is destination for newly-wed Mark Verrots

Sts. Peter and Paul Orthodox Church in Detroit was the setting Sept. 6 for the double ring rite which joined Mary Beth Kyko and Mark Steven Verrot in holy matrimony.

The five o'clock ceremony, conducted by The Very Rev. Michael Dirga, was performed before an altar adorned with wild daisies and autumn-colored mums. The church provided music for the occasion.

The daughter of Leo and Grace Kyko of 18904 Hannan Rd., New Boston, the bride was given in marriage by her father. Holding a bouquet of cascading white carnations and ivy with a center of white orchids, Mary Beth appeared in a Victorian style peau d'ange gown designed by Jena. The little fitted bodice of embroidered Alencon lace was designed with a lace collar above an illusion yoke, the sheer, snug sleeves also featuring the lace motif.

Completing her bridal finery

Mary Elizabeth is new addition to Reinhard clan

"Mary Elizabeth" is the title given to the new daughter born Oct. 16 to Robert and Dianna Reinhard of Romulus. Making her debut at 7:40 p.m. at Beyer Memorial Hospital in Ypsilanti, the new heiress weighed 6 lbs., 6 oz. and measured 19 inches.

The new sister of Robert John II, she is also the granddaughter of Mable Hall of Lauren Court, Belleville; Dallard Hall of Zephyrhills, Fla. and Jack Reinhard of Ypsilanti.

was a fingertip veil of silk illusion which drifted from a cap of Alencon lace.

The bride's college roommate, Pam Williams of Ann Arbor, was maid of honor in buttercup qiana fashioned with a Victorian neckline and cape sleeves. She wore a circlet of baby's breath in her hair and carried a bouquet of wild daisies and baby's breath.

Identical frocks in tearose, peachy, yellow and maize were worn by the quartet of bridesmaids: Katherine Kucyk of Troy, Leota Black of Ionia and Janice Kyko of New Boston, all sisters of the bride; and Donna Le Valley of New Boston.

The bridegroom, the son of Raymond and Mary Ann Verrot of 44044 Harmony, Ln., Belleville, asked his brother, Bruce Verrot of Belleville, to serve as best man. Others on the esquire side were John Verrot of Belleville and Brent Verrot of Chicago, Ill., brothers of the bridegroom; Pat Davis of Belleville, and Brad Verrot of Belleville, another brother.

The Memorial Room at the Knights of Columbus in Wayne was reserved for the reception which followed. The 350 guests were greeted by Mrs. Kyko in a beige chiffon gown splashed with fall shades and Mrs. Verrot in a brown, jacket ensemble. Both mothers were presented with cymbidium orchids.

Following a week-long honeymoon in San Francisco, the newlyweds took up residence in Ypsilanti.

A 1980 graduate of the University of Michigan's School of Nursing, the new Mrs. Verrot is a registered nurse at University Hospital. Her husband, who is currently working on his associate degree in business at Cleary College, is employed at Little Caesar's Family Inn of Belleville where the rehearsal dinner was hosted by his parents.

potpourri

BY LEE SMITH
Suburban Living Editor

With goblins, ghosts, ghouls and all kinds of spooky critters about to take off on their forages tomorrow night, we figured you just might like to hear about the origin (supposed origin) of the Jack-o-lantern (our Halloween logo, nationally) as provided us by George Parker, creative director of Hallmark cards.

Personally, I find his conclusions a bit questionable but then, when it comes to myths, isn't there ALWAYS a question?

Seems there was once a wretched miser named Jack who managed to trick the Devil and gain a dubious status of immortality for that deed. He did so by talking the Devil into climbing an apple tree to pick a piece of fruit.

When the Devil was high in the branches, Jack quickly cut a cross into the trunk, preventing the Devil from coming down.

Before he would release the Devil from his trap, Jack made him swear he would never come after his soul or claim it in any way.

This clever dodge did not prevent Jack from dying, though, and when he went to the gates of heaven he was turned away because all his life he had been so miserly, mean and fond of drink. There was only one other place left to go and that was the gates of hell.

But when he arrived at the entrance to the fiery furnace, the Devil remembered the apple tree incident and refused to admit him.

Jack moaned and asked where he could go and was told, "Back where you came from."

The way back to the surface was dark and lonely, but Jack started back up. As a parting gesture, the Devil picked up a live coal from the floor of hell and threw it at him.

Jack had been eating a turnip and he put the coal inside it to light his way. And ever since, the legend goes, he has traveled the world with his Jack-o-lantern searching for a place to rest.

A wee bit far-fetched? Me thinks so, too.

Parker added that long before our custom of carving Jack-o-lanterns began, Irish children scooped out the centers of large rutabagas, turnips and potatoes. Faces were picked out on the surface and candles set inside these grinning and leering lanterns which were used to light all Hallow's Eve gatherings.

Now that, maybe, I can buy!

If you've a supply of that delicious acorn squash but are tired of simply baking or mashing it, try a few different ways to "dress it up" -- not just for company but for the whole family or the hubby and you.

One of the fun ways to do so, particularly if you're having pork roast, chops or perhaps a ham, is to fill halves with a mixture of stewed apples, raisins, walnuts, cinnamon and nutmeg. Sweeten it if you must, but it's good just au naturel. Bake your squash halves your usual way, then spoon in the compote. Delicious!

Or how about the centers filled with creamed peas (or peas and tiny onions); buttered limas -- or better still, limas mixed with stewed tomatoes; mixed buttered vegetables; loosely browned pork sausage; simple maple syrup and butter; delicately sauteed onions or mushrooms or a blend of both.

Use your imagination, adding whatever it is your own family prefers and you'll soon have a sidedish that draws a few pleasantly raised eyebrows.

Since "queen" is the first and usually the only word that comes to mind when I draw the "q-u" in a game of scramble, I figure there could be others who might quake and quiver over the fact they couldn't qualify in a quiz that set a quota for words beginning with "q". And as I savor my quiche and contemplate the fact I'll probably NEVER dance a quadrille or work on a quilt again, I DO think I might produce a quorum who'd not question my quixotic behavior when it comes to that quaint little letter "q".

"Princess Daisy", despite its fairytale aura, is a book most women would enjoy. Men? No, this is a romantic, bittersweet novel about a woman, born a princess, whose life takes a decided detour from the once-upon-a-time world to the here-and now when first her beloved mother and then her estranged father are killed.

Her regal trappings dissolve into a Bohemian mode of life as she finds herself financially ruined with a despicable half-brother eagerly waiting in the wings to manipulate her life. Her battles to provide for her mentally retarded twin sister, who was secreted away at birth by her father and placed in an exclusive European school, form the nucleus of the story.

Her rewarding but unappreciated skills as a producer of television commercials, her rejection and constant fear of her pompous, demanding half-brother, her unexpected rise to fame in the cosmetics industry and her guilty feelings about her "secret" sister all build into a tale which keeps a reader fascinated and coming back for more.

Having been discouraged from reading "Scruples", Judith Krantz's first piece of fiction, I now find I WILL give it a go hoping it will provide the interest and good story-line I found in "Daisy."

BET YOU DIDN'T KNOW . . .

. . . that Nome, Alaska is farther west than Hawaii.

. . . that today's men are losing their hair an average of 10 years earlier than their dads.

. . . that the goal of every Chinese (according to Newsweek) is to own a radio, sewing machine, watch and bicycle.

. . . that according to experts, the one thing most likely to cause headaches is tension.

. . . that a woman stores her fat in three main places -- her top, rear and thighs.

. . . that if you asked for "monkey nuts" in England, you'd be presented with peanuts.

. . . that, according to People magazine, joggers do not make very good lovers.

. . . that 57 percent of Americans polled by Family Weekly WOULD vote for a qualified woman for president. Oh, where are you THIS election year?

THE BOTTOM LINE: It isn't necessary to fool all the people all of the time -- only during elections.

Jaycettes prize winner

Jaycettes have busy fall ahead

The Belleville-Van Buren Jaycettes have a busy autumn season what with their participation in the Haunted House, their current toy drive and their recent crafts party.

Held at the Van Buren Township Hall, the latter event was chaired by Jaycettes secretary Valerie Higgins who presented prizes to Carolyn Kailimai of Detroit, winner of the country warmth centerpiece; Don Higgins, a pine shelf; Sylvia Stonebraker, wooden doll; and Debbie McKay, wooden cross.

A Christmas raffle is now underway with the Jaycettes prizes including a centerpiece, candlestick, folk doll and switch plate cover.

Tickets are on sale at the Jaycees Haunted House or may be purchased by calling Mrs. Higgins at 699-2714.

The Jaycees Haunted House is located in the old Van Buren Township Hall in Belleville and babysitting will be provided for youngsters who are too frightened to enter. The Halloween season attraction will be open 6 to 10 p.m. weekdays and 5:30 to 11 p.m. weekends. An added sideline this year will be donuts, candy apples, cupcakes, hot and cold cider and hot coffee on sale by the Jaycettes.

The Jaycettes, who are sponsoring a toy drive, are in great need of new or used toys which the group will collect until Dec. 15 and then wrap and deliver to needy or hospitalized children. A drop-off box will be available at the Haunted House or arrangements for pick-up may be made by calling Pat Suter, toy drive chairman, at 697-1316.

New Jaycettes members who have greatly contributed to the current activities, include Paula Cowens, Robin Holsoneck, Linda Mandell, Jackie McKenna, Vickie Abidin, Gloria Ramsey, Sylvia Stonebraker, Pat Suter and associate member, Gene Shurgan.

If you are between the ages of 18 and 35 and would enjoy being involved in your community, please come join the Belleville-Van Buren Jaycettes. Contact the president, Karen Courtney, at 697-5242.

Golden anniversary finale is Nassau cruise for whole family

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford J. Stuckey of Palmetto, Fla., formerly of Milford, Mich., were the honored guests Sept. 25 at a dinner party given by their daughters and sons-in-law in celebration of their golden wedding anniversary.

Hosting the festivities at Kingsley Inn of Birmingham were George and Dolores Witzgall of Porter Avenue, Romulus; Doris Jean Stuckey of Troy and George and Carolyn Grossfuss of North Carolina.

The 50 guests in attendance included an aunt, Miss Della Houghten of Detroit, who was one of six attending who had been present at the wedding as was the best man, Earl Stuckey of Birmingham and the pianist, Mrs. Jean Garpow.

In addition to the Michigan party, the Stuckeys were feted at a dinner at Pete Rinard's in Bradenton, Fla. and celebrated with a cocktail party at their home in Florida for all the new friends and neighbors they had met since retiring to Florida.

The anniversary was highlighted by a 4-day cruise to Nassau at which the Stuckey's three daughters and their husbands were their guests.

Smoky Mountains destination for quintet

By Mrs. Joseph Spring
699-4021

Wilson recently joined relatives from Napoleon, Ohio, an aunt, Mrs. Naomi

Starkey; and cousins,
Mr. and Mrs. Herbert
Moors, for a trip through the Smokey

Mountains and into North Carolina. They also toured the Science Center at Oak Ridge,

Tenn., Mammoth Cave
and enjoyed a boat ride on the Green River in Kentucky.

Mrs. Clayton Saunders with sons, Robert of Weare, N.H. and Lynn of Clinton Township, returned recently from Charlevoix where they had been called by the death of the latter's grandmother, Mrs. Lillian Saunders Moore, on Oct. 16, at the age of 96 years after a lingering illness. Services were held at the Winchester Funeral Home in Charlevoix.

Lodge No. 89, F. & A. M. and of Belleville Chapter No. 73, O. E. S. and before moving to Vian, was a resident of Borgman Street.

Friends, Mr. and Mrs. Merle Cordier from Mogadore, Ohio, spent several days last week with Mr. and Mrs. Ted Luper.

Mrs. Robert Welt and daughter, Roberta, who is Grand Worthy Advisor of Rainbow for Girls in Michigan, were among members who attended Grand Chapter, O.E.S. in Kalamazoo Oct. 14-15. Later they attended the 25th Grand Assembly of Rainbow for Girls at Ottawa, Ont.

Sunday dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gillman Mullreid were their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Syl Wojcicki and son, David, from Chelsea, and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Ostrowski of Tyler Road.

Mrs. Frances Korgal, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Golka were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs.

Edward Wenderski of Newport. The Wenderskis had just returned from McCall, Idaho where they attended the wedding of their daughter, Dianne, to Charles Tabers.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Ketchum and baby son, Bryan Edward, of Kalamazoo, were weekend guests of the former's parents, the Vernon Ketchums.

Mr. and Mrs. Alton Sabin and family of Romulus and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Mericle were among the many who attended the 31st Bi-annual K F O C Seaway Regional meet held at Perryburg, Ohio, Oct. 18-19.

The usual open house hosted by the Mericles was held at Holiday Inn Saturday afternoon with a lunch and door prizes in the evening. On Sunday a potluck buffet dinner was held at Schaller Memorial American Legion Post

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Orr were Sunday dinner guests of the Larry Orrs of Flint.

Home delivery? Naturally!

On the evening of September 11, Mrs. Barbara Cremeens became her own obstetrician when, while at home alone, she delivered her first baby. Barbara stated that she "experienced contractions, laid down on the bed, had the desire to push and, after two big pushes, delivered a baby girl."

Brandy Lee, who weighed 6 pounds, 15½ ounces at birth, was born the day before her mother's birthday.

Originally residents of Elgin, Ill., Barb and husband Jim just recently moved to Romulus from Atlanta, Ga.

Barb received LaMaze (natural childbirth) training through the OB-GYN (maternity) Clinic at Wayne County General Hospital. The LaMaze classes enabled Barb to "know what to expect" during the birthing process. "The LaMaze classes made the delivery a lot easier," she said.

LaMaze classes are offered free of charge to patients seen in the OB-GYN Clinic. For further information, call 722-2500, ext. 6061.

Cathy Horste attends Junior Clubs confab

Cathy Horste, president of the Belleville Women's Junior Study Club, represented her club at the 1980 Fall Conference of the Michigan Federated Junior Women's Clubs held Oct. 4 at Franklin High School in Livonia.

The program for the day included four 45-minute workshops which she attended. Crime Prevention by the Detroit Police Department put special emphasis on urging club women, state-wide, to sponsor awareness programs to stop shoplifting.

The second seminar on Pedestrian Safety was presented by Dr. Marie Emory from Michigan State University.

Girlstown, which is sponsored by the Michigan Federation of Women's Clubs as a home for emotionally troubled girls, was represented by its Program Director Ada Castle and Director General, Tom McIndoe.

The fourth, on membership-leadership training, was an in-service training workshop for junior presidents.

The conference ended with luncheon prepared by Franklin High School commercial food students.

Elwell PTO reports a super Fun Night

The recent Fun Night sponsored by the Elwell School PTO was a huge success due especially to the teachers, parents, students and merchants who donated time, ideas and prizes for the Oct. 17 festivities.

Winner of the portable television set and clock radio, which were raffled, were D. E. Holsinger of Fenton and Daniel Elliott of Belleville, respectively.

Local merchants who contributed door prizes were Ben Franklin, Pump and Pastry, Andrew Drugs, Moss Brothers, Kureth's Apparel, Belleville Lawn and Garden, Belleville Florist, Fireside Book Shop, Kentucky Fried Chicken of Belleville and Belleville Home Bakery.

Still others were Sumpter ACE Hardware, Mary's Chicken, Brass Bell, Guys and Gals Nu-Yu, the Milk Depot, Radio Shack, RPM Records, Hair Station II, Kimes Baker, Red Wagon Party Store and Ghanam's Party Store.

In error

Due to the fact that the bridal questionnaire we received regarding the Corso-Wicker wedding did NOT have a wedding date included, this newspaper assumed that the ceremony had already taken place.

But, unknowingly to us, the nuptials will not be held until Nov. 12. The family is anxious to rectify the error and regrets the premature announcement.

Can Wayne end Glenn's Fall Classic streak?

FLOYD CARTER

Troubled Westlanders host Saturday's game

Few will deny it but Wayne probably was looking ahead Friday night at Wyandotte to Saturday night's confrontation with neighboring rival, Westland John Glenn.

Or how else can one explain the Zebras' dull victory over an ailing Wyandotte team that had won only one previous Great Lakes 8 Conference game? Wayne eked out a 14-9 victory, coming from behind twice in order to do so.

"I think our kids were looking ahead," said Wayne head coach Floyd Carter, "that's the only explanation I have. They've (Glenn) beaten us six of the nine times we've played them and the kids know it. And don't think either team can forget those kinds of stats."

The Glenn-Wayne game has been switched from Friday to Saturday night (kickoff at 8 p.m.) because, according to school officials, they couldn't find enough school personnel, "to work the game on Friday due to Halloween."

The game is also sponsored by the Wayne Jaycees who offer a Fall Football Classic traveling trophy to the winner. After gracing the Wayne display case for the first three years of the series, the trophy has been locked up at Glenn for the past six years.

Westland John Glenn head coach Chuck Gordon, winding up on a 3-4 season says he has not seen a better Wayne team in recent years.

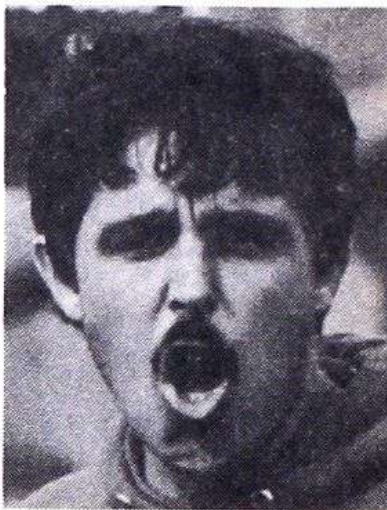

"There is no question," Gordon continued, "that Wayne Memorial has an excellent football team." Rogers (Rick Rogers, Wayne's running back) is probably the best halfback I've ever seen on the high school level and also we have a tremendous amount of respect for their quarterback Ricky Covault. "Because of Covault, we can't completely gear ourselves to stopping their running game — Covault can kill you with his passing."

Glenn is also banged up physically. The Rockets lost senior tailback Greg O'Neil, their leading rusher, to a neck injury after he re-injured it during the Stevenson game.

Carter: 'We were fortunate'

Wayne squeezes past Wyandotte

If the name of the game is to win, then Wayne Memorial can surely boast about its 14-9 victory over Wyandotte Friday night.

But head coach Floyd Carter wasn't satisfied or pleased with the Zebras' triumph in their Great Lakes 8 Conference football finale. "We didn't play well at all," Carter said. "Sure we could attribute it to the rain (it poured incessantly throughout the entire game) but the field was muddy for both sides. We just made too many mistakes, both mental and physical and we can't have that.

"In fact, I feel we were fortunate to come away from there with a victory."

Wayne fell behind twice during the rain-drenched duel. After picking up a safety in the first quarter when Bruce Rize blocked a punt that splashed out of the end zone, the Zebras gave up a touchdown to the Bruins in the second quarter and found themselves trailing 6-2 with about six minutes left in the initial half. The Zebras also fell behind 9-8 early in the third quarter.

Wyandotte got on the scoreboard thanks to a 5-yard Wayne punt that gave the Bruins the ball on the Zebra 19-yard line. It took quarterback Gary O'Toole six plays to score from 3-yards out.

After an exchange of punts, Wayne put together a series that featured nine plays and a 55-yard drive which culminated with running back Rick Rogers going into the Bruin end zone from the 4-yard line. Quarterback Rick Covault tried the option for the two-point conversion and was nailed inches short.

In the waning minutes of the half Wayne again threatened when Rize intercepted an O'Toole pass and carried the ball deep into Bruin territory, finally winding up at the 25. However, an illegal block and three illegal procedure calls against the visitors backed them out of Bruin territory and into their own.

A 27-yard field goal by sophomore Keith Prentice midway in the third quarter gave Wyandotte the lead again, 9-8, after a Bruin drive stalled at the Wayne 9.

Rogers scored the second and decisive TD of the game in the fourth quarter. Wayne Davis set it up with a punt return of 51 yards, to the Bruins 44. Covault got down to work and strung together a 10-play drive that took the Zebras to the Bruin one where Rogers scored his 20th touchdown of the season on an off tackle play.

Wayne again threatened after an exchange of punts, but was left on the Bruins' 5-yard line as the game ended.

Rogers rushed for 137 yards in 29 attempts (the most he has carried in a game). The weather-beaten griddler now has a season total of 1,115 yards and 2,021 career rushing yards.

Covault attempted four passes in the rain and hit on four for 25 yards.

Saturday night Wayne travels to neighboring Westland John Glenn for the annual Fall Classic sponsored by the Wayne Jaycees.

After winning the first three, Wayne has a string of six losses to the Westlanders.

Zebras edge Truman cage team, 45-36

Outscoring Taylor Truman 17-4 in the third quarter, Wayne Memorial came-from-behind to edge their Great Lakes 8 Conference cage rivals 45-36 to win its sixth league contest in seven starts.

Coach Steve Schwartz' cagers are now 6-1 and share first place with arch-rival, Fordson. Monroe is a half-game out of first with a 5-1 record.

Deanna Leverenz pumped in six of her 11 points in the second half and Theresa Callagari finished with a game-high 15 points to lead the Zebras. Wayne trailed at halftime, 17-15.

Wayne tangled with neighboring foe, Westland John Glenn, on Tuesday in an out-of-conference game. Glenn has never beaten the Zebras, however, the Rockets are undefeated on the year.

Of these 15 Wayne County players seven start for the Tartars. On offense Dennis Griffith, Phil Emery, Don Gotham and Randy Alexander. On defense Mark Grabowski, Sherman Fuqua and John Kersey.

Churchill shuts off Pats

Frustrating year for Franklin

It's been a frustrating year for Coach Armand Vigna and his Livonia Franklin Patriots, but there is one consolation — it'll all end Friday night.

Franklin travels cross city to meet Bentley in the 1980 season curtain-drawer and the Bulldogs have had their share of stress and pain. Bentley will take an identical-to-Franklin 2-6 record into the city match-up.

"We expect another one of those dogfights with them," said Vigna. "It doesn't matter whether we're both playing for championships or in the cellar when our two teams meet, it's always a battle."

Vigna's gridders however couldn't do anything right against Churchill last week. Churchill crushed their northend foes 25-0 as Franklin had their problems containing John Bielis.

Bielis scored two touchdowns, rushed for 72 yards in 20 tries with his direct up-the-middle challenges as the Chargers had little problem with their city rivals.

"We just couldn't stop him (Bielis)," Coach Vigna said. "And, along with that, we didn't do anything right offensively or defensively."

Franklin's best drive was their first one when quarterback Scotty Lovich managed to take the Patriots from their own 20 to the Churchill 36 where the series fizzled.

Scoreless the first 12 minutes of the game the deadlock was eventually broken midway in the second period when Churchill's Dan Crowley and Jim Stoitsiadis combined on a 29-yard scoring pass play. The Chargers made it 12-0 before the half when Bielis scored on an off tackle play from 12 yards out.

Bielis's TD was set up by a one-yard Franklin punt that gave the Chargers possession at the Patriot 29.

Churchill widened the scoring gap with TDs in the third and fourth quarters. At 7:43 in the third stanza, Matt Vixon capped a midfield drive with a 9-yard touchdown run, the eighth play in the series. Early in the fourth quarter, Churchill recovered a Franklin fumble and Bielis eventually scored from the 3-yard line.

Franklin received 37 of its total 82 yards rushing from Ron Gunter, while Lovich went to the air eight times and cashed in on three for 46 yards. Used sparingly because of injury, quarterback Chris Panzi also lofted two aeriels that found receivers for an additional 21 yards.

Vigna received help from those he least expected it — injured Kevin Dunbar played an outstanding game at offensive tackle before retiring to the sidelines at halftime, and Ron Lohman, hurtling with a knee injury, was excellent as a linebacker despite the injury.

Wrong way to go

By TOM MOORADIAN
ANP Sports Editor

Because of some uncontained emotions that erupted during the Cherry Hill, Melvindale football game recently, the Cherry Hill Board of Education is considering a "change of venue" in the athletic programs.

In other words, the trustees have placed on the table an item which, if approved, would close the doors to fans this winter when these two teams tangle on the basketball court.

According to a statement to the board by one of the school officials, there is a recommendation, "that the basketball games between the two schools, Melvindale at Cherry Hill in January and Cherry Hill at Melvindale in February, be played behind closed doors."

May I offer my condolences and sympathy to any trustee who would vote "aye" to such a recommendation. He — or she — would be playing right into the hands of the "hotheads" who caused the disturbance in the first place.

And the approval of such a motion would put into perpetual motion the vagrant philosophy that schools cater and kowtow to school hooligans and hoods at the expense of faithful and loyal students and athletes.

The inescapable fact is that the board is running away from the problem if it decides on the "closed door" policy. In this case less student participation is not better. In fact, the board should take immediate action to increase its relationship with Melvindale. There should be more contact with that downriver community in the form of student exchanges athletically and scholastically, and not less.

As history has proven, isolationism never resolved anything. In fact it just brought about misunderstandings.

The football melee — fracas are not unique to Cherry Hill and Melvindale — they occur wherever overwrought, zealous fans feel an injustice is being done — will never go away by closing doors to fans.

The crux of the one at Cherry Hill, apparently, was, according to the report, "that Melvindale was doing all in its power to rub our (Cherry Hill) faces in the dirt, so to speak, by throwing a pass with 46 seconds to play at our end of the field and then running a reverse. It was after this particular play that the outbreak occurred."

Melvindale had the lead and won the abbreviated game, 25-0. The game was called after the incident. Most of the players and some of the faculty and coaches were involved in the fracas. Fortunately no one was reported injured.

Like one fan reported, it looked like a bunch of conscientious objectors who suddenly decided it was time to go to war."

Let's leave it at that.

Area harriers reap little for their regional toil

Franklin rules as Northwest Suburban CC king

Area cross country teams found little for their toil at the annual regional high school championships staged on Saturday during strong winds at Schoolcraft College.

Only a handful of area preps qualified for the state finals which will be held this Saturday at IMA Brookfield Golf Course in Flint.

Livonia Franklin and Westland John Glenn, which finished ahead of North Farmington at the Northwest Suburban Conference meet, saw their league rival run off with the regional Class A title at Schoolcraft.

North garnered 126 points to qualify for state, while Glenn finished fourth (145) and Franklin, fifth (149) behind also state qualifiers Northville (134) and Plymouth Canton (139).

Franklin, which captured the conference championship a week ago, placed two in the state as senior Paul Coburn finished third (16:35) and teammate Jeff Bristow was ninth at the regional.

Glenn will be represented at the state by Pete Stephens, who crossed the finish line at Schoolcraft.

seventh, and the Santo Campbell, a 11th place finisher. Westlander Tom Gibson just missed as he turned up 16th. (The top 14 qualified for the state finals).

Glenn also has a regional survivor in Pam Prater who finished 16th in the girls' division and earned a shot at the state title.

Wayne Memorial had one qualifier in Chris Strome, who came up with the 13th best time.

In the meantime, Franklin and Coach Bob Holmes captured the 1980 Northwest Suburban Conference title as the Livonians piled up 53 team points to edge out challengers Westland John Glenn (64), and North Farmington (68). Thurston had 85 points; Garden City East 100, and Redford Ynuin rounded out the scoring with 113.

The three top teams entered the conference championships deadlocked with 4-1 records.

It was the fourth time in Holmes's 13-year tenure as head coach that Franklin had won the title. "We're really pleased with the championship," Holmes later said. "It's very interesting that this is the second highest total a team has won the title with. Glenn won with 57 a few years ago."

Coburn led most of the three miles, but gave way to East's Mike Stapton who caught the Franklin harrier in the stretch and claimed the individual title. Glenn's Pete Stephens and Jeff Bristow finished second and third with times of 16:45, while Coburn wound up with a 16:52 effort.

Also among the top 10 finishers were Glenn's Tom Gibson, (16:53), Campbell (16:53), Thurston's Tim Jeffrey (16:58), Franklin's Chris Zimmer (17:04), Ken Showich of Thurston (17:12) and North Farmington's John Winterbottom (17:13).

Wayne Memorial will end the conference season Tuesday when the seven-team league gathered in New Boston to decide the championship. Unbeaten Fordson is favored to win the title. Coach Brian Watson's runners at Wayne took a 5-1 dual meet record into the finale.

The Zebras stunned Wyandotte 15-50 in their last outing.

Wayne, Glenn tangle for Fall Classic trophy

Zebras favored to end Rockets' 6-game rule

says: "You're going to have to toss out the records."

"I know it may sound like a cliché, but, whenever our two teams meet, records don't count," Carter stressed. "Just take a look at what happened and happens when

Michigan and Michigan State play — it's always a close game.

"Glenn also plays one of the toughest schedules around. They lost to Edsel Ford, which has lost only one game. They're also lost to Stevenson, which is undefeated and their league champ, North Farmington, has lost only one game, so they (Glenn) have been tested by some of the finest teams in the state. "I look for another tough battle over there."

While Wayne is coming off of a close 14-9 victory over Wyandotte, John Glenn was overpowered by Stevenson 32-14 last Friday. The Westlanders scored on a 20-yard pass from quarterback Rich Discher to Doug Cort and Discher went in on a sneak in the third quarter for the Rockets' second and final TD of the game.

John Johnston kicked both of the extra points, while Keith Zimmerman turned in a stalwart defensive performance for the losers.

"We have now played Stevenson for the past three years and they have been their league champs all three times," Gordon commented. "We feel that this year's Stevenson team is by far the best we have ever played."

Just like Rutherford

Gibson posts 2nd shutout

Like Detroit Red Wings net-minder, Jim Rutherford, Jim Gibson is making news these days. With the third round of the Westland-Wayne Over 30 Hockey League action completed, Gibson carded his second shutout of the young campaign as Tasee Freeze jolted Brock Builders 5-0.

Tasee Freeze got on the scoreboard late in the first period on a goal scored by Tom DiLaura. Dave Frankling netted the second goal midpoint in the second period with yet another goal early in the third period.

Guy Moise and Paul Cramer accounted for the other two goals of the game.

Etronic battled for what they hoped would be its first win of the season, however, Futurama struck back with four goals in the final period to record a 7-5 victory.

Nick Palise led Futurama by checking in with a hat trick, with two of his three goals coming in the third period. Gary Naumoff helped the cause by netting two goals in the third period, his second coming with only four seconds remaining in the game. Bob Eggers and Ed Ross contributed one goal a piece for the winners.

Bob Wood scored the first goal of the game for Etronic and added two more to complete his hat trick. The remaining two goals were scored by Dave Fishwick and Dave Roberts. Benny's Pizzeria suffered its first loss of the year, Johnson Carbonic 3-1. David Jones netted the first goal of the game which turned out to be the only goal scored for Benny's.

George Mott scored two goals in the first period for Johnson Carbonic with Ron Johnson scoring the final goal of the game in the second period.

It appeared single tallies in the first period by Mike Villemure and Ron Wojewski would be enough to assure the Jock Shop a win but Jake's Lounge came back with one goal in the second period by Jim Lear and another in the third by Dave Milam to attain a 2-2 tie. Constant pressure was applied by the Jock Shop in the final minutes of the game, however, outstanding goal tending by John Ruggiero preserved the tie.

Three players for Little Bill's Trophies ended the evening with two goals apiece as Little Bill's handed Extra Point Bar an 8-1 loss. Terry Carley wasted no time by scoring two goals in the first period. Ken Beal ended the first period with one of his two goals — while his second goal came with only 37 seconds remaining in the second period. Don Middaugh added a single tally in the second period to make the score 5-0 at that point.

The third period started off with Corky Hays netting the puck with only 20 seconds off the clock, adding another goal eight minutes later. Dennis Lapensee scored the final goal of the game for the winners.

Over in Wayne, Extra Point Bar & A-C has a 9 p.m. meeting with Tasee Freeze and at 10:30 p.m. the Jock Shop and Little Bills Trophies will mix 'em up.

Tigers finish 2nd to Canton tankers

Although the Belleville Tigers turned in some of their finest times of the season, they just weren't good enough to stop an excellent Plymouth Canton AAU swim club last week.

Consequently, the Tigers were tripped up 381-235 in their first meeting of the season between the two clubs.

Belleville did post a first for the 9-10 year old boys age group, the freestyle relay, as Jerry Ammon, Martin Duda, Eric Lawson and Eric Snider covered the 200-yards in 2:21.2.

The team of David Traskos, Greg Lynch, Ed Ammond, and Jeff Francher also placed first for the 11-12 group, 200-yard freestyle. Their winning time was 2:11.2. The foursome grabbed a first in the medley relay (2:27).

Courtney Samuels took the only individual first winning the 50-yard backstroke for 13-14 year old girls. Her winning time was 35.1.

Glenn swimmers even up record

Westland John Glenn, the defending Northwest Suburban Conference girls' swimming champ, evened up its conference record at 1-1 by coasting past Livonia Franklin 102-70.

Propelled by Monica Kubiak's double win, Coach Debbie Sander's tankers captured eight out of a possible 11 first places. Miss Kubiak turned in the best times for the 200-yard freestyle (2:25.1) and the 100-yard freestyle (1:07.0).

Glenn also claimed first place in the 200-yard medley relay as Karen Scarsborough, Cindy Walkuski, Devona Snowdon and Paula Taylor combined on a 2:16.3 performance. The Westlanders' winning 400-yard freestyle relay team was made up of Nancy Ostlund, Monica Kubiak, Taylor and Nancy Korbit who finished in 4:22.1.

Glenn also had the winner for the 50-yard freestyle, Sandy Martinez, who was clocked in 27.4, while Miss Walkuski had a 1:16.3 in winning the 100-yard butterfly. Chris Johnston was an easy winner for the 500-yard freestyle as she breezed to a 6:11.7 victory.

Westlander Shon Pilarski, who garnered 170.05 points was the top diver in the meet.

Earlier, Belleville edged Glenn 42-41 in an out-of-conference dual meet as Glenn wasted a double victory in the distance freestyle events by Miss Johnson.

Glenn will resume conference competition Thursday night at home when the Rockets will meet Thurston. On hand to cheer the Rockets will be their parents — the meet is set aside as "Parents' Night".

Belleville pays first visit to Canton gridiron

Chiefs drop 6 straight

Coach Rich Barr knew it would be difficult stepping in as leader of Canton High School's football team after the Chiefs posted an 0-9 record last year.

But he never felt the "pain" would be quite as excruciating as it turned out to be.

Canton dropped its second game in a row by one point Friday night after leading at halftime. Canton led Garden City East, 7-0, at intermission before a third period touchdown and two-point conversion run gave the host Panthers a tight 8-7 victory.

A week earlier, the Chiefs held a seemingly comfortable 13-0 halftime lead over visiting Waterford Mott before surrendering two second half touchdowns in a 14-13 defeat.

"I don't know what to say," Barr admitted after Friday's disheartening loss at Garden City East, a team that's been having problems winning this year.

"We had them shutout the first half, just like we did Mott a week earlier, but their only sustained drive of the game resulted in the go-ahead touchdown and two-point conversion. Their 60-yard drive followed the second half kick-off and it was helped by a 15-yard personal foul penalty against us. That moved the ball from our 35 to the 20 and then we had a 5-yard penalty assessed against us when one of our players left the field through the end zone.

"Those 20 yards in penalties helped East in their touchdown drive. Other than that, I thought we played extremely well, especially considering the hard rain that fell the entire game."

Both teams lost two fumbles in the slippery going, but the defensive units kept the action contained mainly between the 30-yard-lines.

Things looked pretty bright when Chief quarterback Bill Childs scampered seven yards on an option-keeper to make it 6-0 in the first quarter. Dependable kicker Dennis O'Flynn booted the extra point and Canton carried a 7-0 lead into the locker room at intermission.

But the Panthers took the second half kickoff and drove 60 yards through the rain and Chiefs' defense to score on a 3-yard plunge by Doug Tankersley. The two-point conversion run was good and the sparse and wet Panther fans went wild when their team took the 8-7 lead early in the third quarter.

Both teams moved the ball in the middle of the field but couldn't penetrate the endzone again as the Chiefs dropped their sixth game in a row after winning the season opener. Canton has lost five games by a total of 19 points and Coach Barr admits it is really "hard to take" the narrow defeats.

"You'd think we'd get a break or two along the way," he lamented. Actually, the Chiefs have played well enough that with a break here or there, they could be sporting a 4-4 record instead of its disappointing 1-7 mark.

Things will only get tougher this week as Canton gears up to host a good Belleville Tiger squad at 7:30 p.m. Friday in the final game of the year for both squads.

A shocker

Trenton rocks Salem

By JIM BRADLEY
ANP Staff Writer

Any hopes of upsetting state-ranked Trenton disappeared on the first play of the game Friday when Plymouth Salem fumbled and the Trojans recovered on the hosts' 23-yard-line.

Four plays later, halfback Bill Crimmons powered over the goal line to make it 6-0 for undefeated Trenton with the game barely three minutes old. Five-foot-five Rob Haggarty kicked the first of his five extra points and the Trojans were off and running to their eighth consecutive win and the 1980 Suburban "8" League title.

Playing in a game-long downpour, the powerful and poised visitors ran through, over and around a determined band of Rocks, who managed to trail only 14-0 at the half.

Jeff Whiteside, a burly 6-2, 223-pound fullback, leaped the final yard with 4:26 left in the first quarter to make it 14-0 when Haggarty added the point after.

With a heavy rain ruling out both passing attacks and severely hampering Salem's option plays, neither side scored the rest of the first half. Salem did, however, stop a deep Trenton thrust that penetrated to the Rocks' 15-yard-line just before intermission.

Leading 4-0, Trenton took the second half kick-off and returned to Salem's 49-yard-line. Crimmons, who gained 170 yards on 34 carries in the game, nudged the ball on all 11 plays as the Trojans moved 49 yards to assume a 21-0 margin.

Showing surprising power, the 6-foot, 190-pound Crimmons followed his big, bruising linemen in rolling up several good gains before powering up the middle the final six yards on his 11th consecutive carry. Haggarty again split the uprights to make it 21-0.

Salem's few fans, enduring the game-long rain, had their only real chance to cheer on the next series for the Rocks. Halfback Bob Pittaway brought the sparse crowd to its feet when he took the handoff on the first play and raced 71 yards down left sidelines to paydirt. Brian Lewandowski kicked the extra point to close the difference to 21-7 with 6:39 left in the third period.

However, quarterback Kevin Kolcheff directed the Trojans 61 yards in only eight plays to make it 28-7 when Whiteside bulled eight yards up the middle for the touchdown and Haggarty booted the extra point at 3:24 of the third period.

Kolcheff's 15-yard scamper set up halfback Chuck Rogers' 4-yard TD sweep around right end that made it 34-7 with 6:56 left in the game and "old reliable" Haggarty made it a perfect 5-for-5 with the extra point.

The victory gave Trenton an 8-0 season record and a 6-0 Sub "8" slate, good for the league title this year. Salem's season dropped to 3-3 in the conference and 4-4 overall.

Trenton had 18 first downs to only six for Salem, whose Pittaway rushed for 78 yards in only five carries.

Trenton now looks a sure thing for the state playoffs, while Salem travels to Farmington Harrison Saturday for a 2 p.m. clash with the Hawks, who defeated North Farmington, 21-14, last Saturday.

Switch and save up to $20 per card!

Almost every area bank has announced a new annual fee to be charged to its credit card customers. This means that if you have a MasterCard or Visa account at one of these banks, you will be charged an annual fee ranging between $10 and $20. And if you have a MasterCard at one bank and Visa at another, you will probably have to pay an annual fee at each bank.

Good News

At Wyandotte Savings Bank, there is still no annual fee for MasterCard and Visa cardholders. Which means you can save up to $20 per card per year! So it makes sense to switch your MasterCard and Visa accounts to WSB. But there's more.

More Good News

When you have both a MasterCard and Visa account at WSB, your monthly paperwork is cut in half. Instead of receiving two monthly statements and writing two checks, we'll send you just one statement and if there is a balance due, you'll only have to write one check. This saves you time and money.

Come to WSB and Save

So if you have one or both of your credit card accounts at another bank—or if you want to open a MasterCard and Visa account for the first time—apply at any office of Wyandotte Savings Bank. We'll save you money with no annual fees and we'll send you your cards in time for Christmas shopping.

No annual fee on credit cards is just one more reason why you should do all your banking at Wyandotte Savings Bank. We've been helping people for over a century.

Annapolis 80-yard TD punt return burns Romulus, 29-28

Just when Coach Don Foley and his Romulus Eagles felt they had victory in their clutches, it dissipated before their eyes.

A stunning 80-yard kickoff return by Kirk Trumble in the closing minutes set up Dearborn Heights Annapolis' nailbiting 29-28 victory over the Eagles on Friday.

Trumble's spectacular run tied the score at 28-all and Leo Lanigan's kick for the extra point was good, cutting the knot and sealing the victory for the Cougars.

"It was a tough one to lose..."

heartbreaker," said Coach Foley. "What can you say when you lose like that. We thought we had them."

Romulus almost did. With 3:50 left in the game the Eagles got on the scoreboard thanks to a 39-yard touchdown run by John Holifield. That put Romulus up, 28-22, but they missed what proved to be a crucial extra point.

On the ensuing kickoff, Trumble got the ball, raced up the middle, then broke for the sidelines and went 80-yards for the equalizer. After Lanigan's extra point, the Cougars chose to kick deep and managed to hold their rivals who gave up the ball on downs.

Romulus defense dug in and almost pulled it out. After Annapolis failed to get anywhere, the Cougars attempted to punt and the kick was blocked by Dale Eddings and picked up by Tim Sumerfield who made it to the Cougar 35 yard line before he was stopped.

Romulus quarterback Marty Knight tried a couple of unsuccessful plays, then, on a desperation pass he was intercepted at the Annapolis three-yard line where the game ended.

It was a close game all the way. Annapolis took the opening kickoff and marched 53 yards in nine plays and scored. Lanigan kicked the extra point and at 7:34, the Cougars were ahead 7-0.

Romulus countered on its first series as Knight put together a nine-play drive which was highlighted by four pass receptions, three to Mark Schick and the fourth to Marcus Oden for a 37-yard TD with 2:43 left in the opening quarter.

Knight then booted the extra point, making it 7-all.

Unimpressed, Annapolis' immediately replied with a 72-yard drive that ended with Chris Fiescura scoring from 15 yards out on the ninth place. Lanigan again kicked the extra point, giving the Cougars a 14-7 lead.

After an exchange of punts, Romulus captain Randy Champagne recovered a fumble at the Eagle 30 and Knight took his teammates 70-yards and scored on another breath taker. Oden fumbled a pass in the end zone and it was recovered by Schick for the touchdown. The drive also featured a 66-yard pass play from Knight to Dale Eddington. Knight again came up with the point-after to tie it at 14-all.

With 37-seconds left in the half, Leo Mendez scored for Annapolis from the one-yard line after a pass interception set the TD up. The Cougars elected to get for two and made it, 22-14.

Oden then capped a 38-yard Romulus drive late in the third period with a two-yard TD run and Holifield scored the two point conversion to tie the game for the third time, 22-all.

Knight finished the game with 14 pass completions in 24 tries for 203 yards while Eagle ball carriers rushed for 128 yards in 33 attempts with Holifield picking up 66 in nine attempts; Oden had 38 yards on 12 rushes. Schick added nine more receptions to bring his season total to 85 catches and 532 yards.

Champagne looked unbeatable on defense. The Eagle captain accounted for 12 solos and five assists. He also recovered a fumble.

Romulus will host area power, Ypsilanti, Friday afternoon, in the season's finale.

Tigers seek third straight grid victory

Coach Mike Colletta and his Tigers at Belleville High can accomplish on Friday what no other Belleville grid team did during the 70s — win three consecutive varsity football games.

The Tigers, after edging Allen Park, 7-6, in a rain-soaked battle go after hapless Plymouth Canton in the season finale. Canton won its first game of the year then proceeded to drop the next seven.

"I feel that they (Canton) are about where we were a year ago," said Coach Colletta. "They have a new coach (Rich Barr) and they're in a rebuilding stage, but obviously we're not taking them lightly."

Belleville's victory over Allen

Park boosted the Tigers' league record to 3-3, and that is the first time in recent years the local gridders have finished .500 in the Suburban 8 Conference.

Colletta figures winning back-to-back victories "is the turning point in our program."

"Our kids needed this victory," Colletta continued. "None of us around here can figure out when was the last time a Belleville team put together two straight wins and this is the first time we've finished in third place in the league."

But Allen Park made the Tigers work for their victory. Scoreless for three quarters, Belleville struck first when senior quarterback Mike Sampson engineered a 48-yard drive that culminated with running back Keith Gates' one-yard touchdown plunge.

Steve Cook, who had an earlier 75-yard touchdown run called back because of a clip, was the impetus behind the Tigers' only TD drive against the Parkers.

What stood up as the decisive point in this game was contributed by Sam Villa who managed to put the ball through the uprights despite the incessant rains and soggy gridiron.

With three minutes left, the Jaguars found ample time to retaliate. A face mask penalty against the Tigers, a fumble that resulted in a 20 yard gain for the Jaguars paved the way for AP's touchdown. Allen Park's Chris Thome managed to quarterback his team to the Belleville 8-yard line where a pass interference call put the hosts at the Tiger four. Two plays later Strome scored from the two.

Strome also attempted to get the two-point conversion but was stopped inches short of the goal line.

Cook had a sterling game as the speedy halfback rushed for 132 yards on 18 carries. He also teamed with Scott Forster on defense to provide more than his share of tackles.

"If you take Allen Park's last drive away from them, our defense really did a job on them," Colletta said. "I'm really proud at the way these kids are playing. They never quit."

Undefeated champs defend title

Wayne to host WW girl swimmers

Undefeated Wayne Memorial will place its Western Wayne Invitational Swimming & Diving championship on the block this week when some seven area girls' swimming teams invade Wayne High.

The invitational will be staged beginning with the preliminaries at 4 p.m. on Friday and will be concluded the following day, Saturday, with the finals beginning at 2 p.m.

Wayne, which has an unmarred 8-0 dual meet record, will face challenges from Belleville, Garden City East, Garden City West, Livonia Franklin, Wyandotte, Allen Park, Riverview and Westland John Glenn.

"There will be a lot of swimming talent here," said Coach Jim McPartlin whose tankers are seeking their second straight WW title. "I really don't know the strengths and weaknesses of all our opposition, but I can say this that the meet should prove interesting."

Meanwhile, Wayne overwhelmed arch-rival, Fordson, 126-41 for its second successive Great Lakes 8

Conference victory of the season. The Zebras captured all 11 first places with their medley relay team made up of Catherine Batterson, Lori Miles, Mary Batterson and Mary Jo Mason established a school record of 2:00.2.

The winning time also qualified for Wayne medley team to compete in the state finals.

Ms. Clark recipient of Silver Beaver Award

Veteran Scout honored

Donna Clark, who has been active in the Belleville-Huron Boys Scouts of America program will be honored next week with the Silver Beaver Award, the highest recognition for outstanding service to youth. Ms. Clark has been an active participant in scouting for over 11 years.

Glenn E. White, Chrysler Corporation, Vice President and President of the Detroit Area Council, Boy Scouts of America, has announced that a veteran Scouting volunteer in Huron District will receive the coveted Silver Beaver Award at Huron District's Annual Recognition Dinner.

The dinner will be held at St. Paul's United Church of Christ in Taylor, Sat. Nov. 1, at 6:30 p.m.

The recipient of the award is Ms. Donna Clark who has been in Scouting for over eleven years.

The Silver Beaver Award is the highest recognition the Detroit Area Council BSA can award to a volunteer Scouter for outstanding service to youth. The citation which is presented with the Silver medal pendant and ribbon reads in part as follows:

"The National Court of Honor, Boy

Scouts of America, in recognition of exceptional and noteworthy service to youth, and in grateful acknowledgment of the good that will ensue therefrom, is both pleased and honored to confer upon these distinguished citizens the Award of the Silver Beaver; and it cherishes the lively and enduring hope that this honored emblem and certificate of commendation accompanying these presentations bearing the signature of the President of the United States of America will serve as enduring evidences of a grateful people."

Ms. Clark is Den mother, den leader coach, member troop committee, Cub roundtable commissioner staff, unit commissioner, powwow chairman and scouter over 11 years.

Because she wants to see all young people have the opportunity to be club scouts, she has given a great deal of time to the organization of new units. She has done more than just assisted in the organization of these units, she has continued to aid these units in getting good program to boys. She has willingly shared her expertise of the cubbing program by serving on the training staff for cub scout training.

Ms. Clark's services to the community has not been confined to the scouting program. She has worked as a Girl Scout leader, a member of the high school band and boosters club and on the board of the Belleville Parks and Recreation committee.

An active church member she has been past president of the Episcopal Church women, choir member, and active in the Trinity Troop mothers auxiliary sponsored by the church. She has received the scouters training award and has been recognized with the district award of merit. She is married and has three children. Her leadership abilities, her enthusiasm and willingness to help others has made her a recognized leader in the district.

Romulus offers wide spectrum of fall recreation activities

The Romulus Recreation Department's fall-winter program has moved into fast gear as residents can find a wide spectrum of recreation activities available to them.

Youth Recreation - assorted activities for grades 4 through 7 after school until 5:00 p.m. Boys open recreation will be held on Mondays at the following schools: Halecreek, Mt. Pleasant and Wick; Tuesdays at Barth, Beverly, Hayti and Merriman. Girls recreation is as follows: Wednesdays at Halecreek, Hayti and Mt. Pleasant; Thursday at Barth and Merriman and Fridays at Beverly.

Rollerskating is offered Mondays and Thursdays for Romulus residents of all ages at the Mayflower Roller Rink on Middlebelt just south of Eureka. Admission starts at 6:00 p.m. and costs $1.50 which includes 3 hours of skating and live band. If there is no band, then the price will go down to $1.00. There is an additional fee of 50c. for skate rental for those who do not own their own skates.

Racquetball: The Earlybird Men's racquetball League returns this year on Wednesday and Friday mornings at 7 a.m. The program will cost an average of $4.00 per day which will include court time and trophies.

Archery: Bow season is upon us. Now is the time to sharpen your skills by visiting the Archery Range at Elmer Johnson Park. $1 will include unlimited shooting at targets.

Umpires: Earn extra money next year umpiring softball in Romulus. Applications are now being accepted. Previous experience helpful but not necessary. Contact the recreation offices. Dancercise: Kick up your heel — and join in the fun of dancercise. Aerobic dancing at it's best is being offered on Wednesday at Wick School and Thursdays at Halecreek from 6:30 to 8:00 p.m. Cost is $30.00 for a ten week course.

BELLEVILLE OFFICE

397 Main St. 699-2015

CONNIE CHICKY says - I'm stirring and stirring my brew to find the very best house for you. To a free-lined street in colors of gold, add a handsome brick home your family to hold. Bedrooms three, carpeting like new, a garage for him, a warm, dry basement, too. Comfy living room, modern kitchen and bath, good neighborhood, priced right; you won't need new math! Earl Keim Realty of Westland. 729-2500.

CALL TODAY! Ask for P.J. - this spacious 7 room, 2 1/4 bath home has great potential. Estate priced at $49,500.00 for quick sale. Offers welcome. Earl Keim Realty of Westland. 729-2500.

SUMMON SUE DRUMMOND - to see Westland's best home buy! Half acre lot, 4 or 5 bedrooms, 2 1/2 pool, nice and clean - good assumption. Call for appointment. Earl Keim Realty of Westland. 729-2500.

CALL MARTHA FARMER - for the buy of the week. This home is no trick - to see it will be a treat. You can assume the mortgage on this 3 bedroom brick ranch. All new carpeting, 2 1/2 car garage. Price reduced. Earl Keim Realty of Westland. 729-2500.

OUR RANCHES, colonials and bungalows are all decked out with pumpkins a glow. For information on the one you pick, call our office and ask for VIC. Earl Keim Realty of Westland. 729-2500.

GARDEN CITY SPECIAL - 3 bedroom, 910 square foot home on beautiful double lot with garage and fruit trees. Country living in the city. Call BOB GERAGE for a happy marriage. Earl Keim Realty of Westland. 729-2500.

IT'S CERTAIN! JIM BURTON has the one for you. Clean, two bedroom home on large corner lot in Westland has a $3,800.00 simple assumption at 11 1/2% interest with a $316.00 payment - immediate occupancy - will not last! Earl Keim Realty of Westland. 729-2500.

WE HAVE LOTS of good homes available for your shopping pleasure. For instance this 3 bedroom brick ranch with living room, kitchen, utility and garage for $35,900.00. If you're tired of looking and feeling lazy, call our office and ask for TIM KAZY. He'll find the home that suits you best while you sit back and take a rest. Earl Keim Realty of Westland. 729-2500.

YOU WON'T GET HURT if you work with CURT. You can still afford to be a home owner. Call me for the details of this priced right 2 bedroom ranch with living room, kitchen, formal dining room and large utility. Completely refinished and protected by our one year Guardian Home Warranty. Possible land contract. Earl Keim Realty of Westland. 729-2500. $32,900.00.

FOR A SALES PERSON who will really care call and ask for ADELIN BLAIR - she'll be happy to tell you about this 3 bedroom brick ranch with its beautifully finished basement which is carpeted, drywalled and has a built-in refrigerator. Nicely landscaped yard. Earl Keim Realty of Westland. 729-2500. $32,900.00.

BE SURE WITH LESUER - if you lean toward the old fashioned but like today's code, you'll love this older 3 bedroom colonial with its spacious dining room, living room with French doors and big front porch. Up to date plumbing, heating and electrical. If you'd like to know what else it's got - call Earl Keim and ask for DOT. Earl Keim Realty of Westland. 729-2500.
